Since account: Although demo accounts attempt to replicate real markets, they operate in a simulated market environment. As such, there are key differences that distinguish them from real accounts, including but not limited to, the lack of leverage or real-time market liquidity a trader is using, and the execution of some orders which may not be possible in real accounts. The operational experience and resulting orders in a demo environment may result in slightly different execution, but it is not intended to be a direct reflection of the market. There may be instances where major movements differ from those of the accounts in order to demo account may not always mirror real-time of real accounts.
