Catalogue of the Library of the Boston Athenaeum Boston Athenaeum,1876 Albert Camus's "The New Mediterranean Culture" Neil Foxlee,2010 This book was shortlisted for the R H Gapper prize 2011 On 8 February 1937 the 23 year old Albert Camus gave an inaugural lecture for a new Maison de la culture or community arts centre in Algiers Entitled La nouvelle culture m diterran enne The New Mediterranean Culture Camus s lecture has been interpreted in radically different ways while some critics have dismissed it as an incoherent piece of juvenilia others see it as key to understanding his future development as a thinker whether as the first expression of his so called Mediterranean humanism or as an early indication of what is seen as his essentially colonial mentality These various interpretations are based on reading the text of The New Mediterranean Culture in a single context whether that of Camus s life and work as a whole of French discourses on the Mediterranean or of colonial Algeria and French discourses on that country By contrast this study argues that Camus s lecture and in principle any historical text needs to be seen in a multiplicity of contexts discursive and otherwise if readers are to understand properly what its author was doing in writing it Using Camus s lecture as a case study the book provides a detailed theoretical and practical justification of this multi contextualist approach Rambles on the Riviera Milburg F Mansfield,2024-02-07 Valence le Midi commence is a saying of the French though this Rh ne side city the Julia Valentia of Roman times is in full view of the snow clad Alps It is true however that as one descends the valley of the torrential Rh ne from Lyons southward he comes suddenly upon a brilliancy of sunshine and warmth of atmosphere to say nothing of many differences in manners and customs which are reminiscent only of the southland itself Indeed this is even more true of Orange but a couple of scores of miles below whose awning hung streets and open air workshops are as brilliant and Italian in motive as Tuscany itself Here at Orange one has before him the most wonderful old Roman arch outside of Italy and an amphitheatre so great and stupendous in every way and so perfectly preserved that he may well wonder if he has not crossed some indefinite frontier and plunged into the midst of some strange land he knew not of The history of Provence covers so great a period of time that no one as yet has attempted to put it all into one volume hence the lover of wide reading with Provence for a subject will be able to give his hobby full play National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),
