Facebook just made their most important political audience measurement yet. New tools allow brands, journalists, activists, and nonprofits to track their political reach. Many other political organizations are part of this trend, too. Facebook's new features, like the "Watch Now" button, will give people and organizations more ways to keep their political audiences engaged.

Political audiences change. As you continue to work toward your political campaign, remember that it's not just one particular type of audience you're reaching.

Facebook's political reach reporting, for example, helps you determine which audiences may be more likely to support your cause. You can then target those audiences.

Facebook's political audience reporting gives you the ability to target specific people who care about your cause.
