on the Block Tony Cooper,2012-11-29 Who is really in charge of our schools the headteachers or the politicians Tony Cooper lifts the lid on leading a school at a time of increasing accountability and government interference In December 2011 Tony Cooper retired from the headship of a comprehensive secondary school in Cambridgeshire after almost a quarter of a century in post In Head on the Block he reflects on the many issues that have affected education over this time discussing their impact on schools in general and his own school in particular He places issues and events within a social and historical context showing how education has been subjected during the period of his career to vastly increased political interference His commentary is interspersed with many personal recollections and anecdotes both humorous and serious as he presents a critique of the condition of state education today and how the role of the headteacher has changed He takes a light hearted look at his own school and university education and shows how the successes and amusing mishaps of his early career impacted on his decision to seek headship The author loses no opportunity to take issue with the seemingly endless stream of government initiatives which have been flung at headteachers impinging on the management of schools and unduly influencing the content and delivery of the school curriculum At the same time he delivers an irreverent swipe at today's climate of political correctness and the continual need for change for its own sake Above all he challenges the current results orientated target driven culture which has been systematically inflicted on schools making a plea for education to be as broad as possible and enjoyable for its own sake rather than simply a means to an end So you want to be a Doctor? David Metcalfe,Harveer Dev,Michael Moazami,2021-03-04 So you want to be a doctor Be confident and fully prepared for every step of your medical school application Packed with insight tips and information you won't find anywhere else this essential guide helps applicants succeed against tough competition Full of practical advice from those in the know Over 100 medical students and admissions tutors have contributed to unique profiles of every medical school in the UK with rankings and detailed explanations of what it is really like to study at each one Discover how often students encounter patients how
