Schoenberg Malcolm MacDonald, 2008-09-26 In this completely rewritten and updated edition of his long indispensable study Malcolm MacDonald takes advantage of 30 years of recent scholarship new biographical information and deeper understanding of Schoenberg's aims and significance to produce a superb guide to Schoenberg's life and work MacDonald demonstrates the indissoluble links among Schoenberg's musical language particularly the enigmatic and influential twelve tone method his personal character and his creative ideas as well as the deep connection between his genius as a teacher and as a revolutionary composer Exploring newly considered influences on the composer's early life MacDonald offers a fresh perspective on Schoenberg's creative process and the emotional content of his music For example as a previously unsuspected source of childhood trauma the author points to the Vienna Ringtheater disaster of 1881 in which hundreds of people were burned to death including Schoenberg's uncle and aunt whose orphaned children were then adopted by Schoenberg's parents MacDonald brings such experiences to bear on the music itself examining virtually every work in the oeuvre to demonstrate its vitality and many sidedness A chronology of Schoenberg's life a work list an updated bibliography and a greatly expanded list of personal allusions and references round out the study and enhance this new edition

The Triumph of Venus Jeanne Lorraine Schroeder, 2004-02-23 The theory of law and economics that dominates American jurisprudence today views the market as rational and individuals as driven by the desire to increase their wealth It is a view riddled with misconceptions as Jeanne Lorraine Schroeder demonstrates in this challenging work which looks at contemporary debates in legal theory through the lens of psychoanalysis and continental philosophy Through metaphors drawn from classical mythology and interpreted via Lacanian psychoanalysis and Hegelian philosophy Schroeder exposes the hidden and repressed erotics of the market Her work shows how the predominant economic analysis of markets and the standard romantic critique of markets are in fact mirror images reflecting the misconception that reason and passion are inalterably opposed

Library, 1971 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2000 Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba, 2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines A Commentary on Jean-Paul Sartre's Critique of Dialectical Reason Joseph S. Catalano, 2013-01-17 Sartre s Critique of Dialectical Reason ranks with Being and Nothingness as a work of major philosophical significance but it has been largely neglected The first volume published in 1960 was dismissed as a Marxist work at a time when structuralism was coming into vogue the incomplete second volume has only recently been published in France In this commentary on the first volume Joseph S Catalano restores the Critique to its deserved place among Sartre's works and within philosophical discourse as a whole Sartre attempts one of the most needed tasks of our times Catalano asserts the delivery of history into the hands of the average person Sartre's concern in the Critique is with the historical significance of everyday life Can we he asks as individuals or even collectively direct the course of our history A historical context for our lives is given to us at birth but we sustain that context with even our most mundane actions buying a newspaper waiting in line eating a meal In looking at history Sartre argues reason can never separate the historical situation of the investigator from the investigation Thus reason falls into a dialectic always depending upon the past for guidance but always being reshaped by the present Clearly showing the influence of Marx on Sartre's thought the Critique adds the historical dimension lacking in Being and Nothingness In placing the Critique within the corpus of Sartre's philosophical writings Catalano argues that it represents a development rather than a break from Sartre's existentialist phase Catalano has organized his commentary to follow the Critique and has supplied clear examples and concrete expositions of the most difficult ideas He explicates the dialogue between Marx and Sartre that is internal to the text and he also discusses Sartre's Search for Method which is published separately from the Critique in English editions Fairytale in the Ancient World Graham Anderson, 2002-01-04 In this the first modern study of the ancient fairytale Graham Anderson asks whether the familiar children's fairytale of today existed in the ancient world He examines texts from the classical period and finds many stories which resemble those we know today including a Jewish Egyptian Cinderella a Snow White whose enemy is the goddess Artemis a Pied Piper at Troy He puts forward many previously unsuspected candidates as classical variants of the modern fairytale and argues that the degree of violence and cruelty in the ancient tales means they must have been meant for adults National Abjection Karen Shimakawa, 2002-12-05 Explores the ways that playwrights and performers have dealt with the presentation of the Asian American body on stage given the historical construction of Asian Americanness as abject and unrepresentable The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1888 Cognitive Poetics Geert Brône, Jeroen Vandaele, 2009 For more than two decades now cognitive science has been making overtures to literature and literary studies Only recently however cognitive linguistics and poetics seem to be moving towards a more serious and reciprocal type of interdisciplinarity In coupling cognitive linguistics and poetics cognitive poetics aim to offer cognitive readings of literary texts and formulate specific hypotheses concerning the relationship between aesthetic meaning effects and patterns in the cognitive construal and processing of literary texts One of the basic assumptions of the endeavour is that some of the key topics in poetics such as the construction of text worlds characterization narrative perspective distancing discourse etc may be fruitfully approached by applying cognitive linguistic concepts and insights such as embodied cognition metaphor mental spaces iconicity construction grammar figure ground alignment etc in an attempt to support enrich or adjust traditional poetic analysis Conversely the tradition of poetics may support frame or call into question insights from cognitive linguistics In order to capture the goals gains and gaps of this rapidly growing interdisciplinary field of research this volume brings together some of the key players and critics of cognitive poetics The eleven chapters are grouped into four major sections each dealing with central concerns of the field i the cognitive mechanisms discursive means and mental products related to narrativity Semino Herman Culpeper ii the different incarnations of the concept of figure in cognitive poetics Freeman Steen Tsur iii the procedures that are meant to express or create discursive attitudes like humour irony or distance in general Antonopoulou and Nikiforidou Dancygier and Vandelanotte Giora et al and iv a critical assessment of the current state of affairs in cognitive poetics and more specifically the incorporation of insights from cognitive linguistics as only one of the contributing fields in the interdisciplinary conglomerate of cognitive science Louwerse and Van Peer Sternberg The ensuing dialogue between cognitive and literary partners as well as between advocates and opponents is promoted through the use of short response articles included after ten chapters of the volume Geert Br ne Katholieke Universiteit Leuven Belgium Jeroen Vandaele University of Oslo Norway Junior Knowledge Book Sura College of Competition,2004-08 The Foundations of Modern Political Thought: Volume 2, The Age of Reformation Quentin Skinner,1978-11-30 The two volumes of The Foundations of Modern Political Thought are intended as both an introduction to the period for students and a presentation and justification of a particular approach to the interpretation of historical texts Book Cover *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
