"She is far more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her."

Proverbs 3:15

Eva,
What a blessing it has been to watch you grow into the beautiful young woman you are today! You have brought us so much joy through your smiles, laughter, silliness, and loving heart. We are so proud of you and pray that you will continue to let your light shine in this next season of life. We look forward to seeing what the Lord has in store for your future.

Love you always,

The Politics of the Male Body in Global Sport Hans Bonde,2013-10-18

Danish sport has been associated with Europe and the World not least through I P Muller and Niels Bukh and the Danish Gymnastics revolution with its emphasis on male aesthetics and hygiene in the first half of the twentieth century At the same time Denmark has stood apart from Europe in the early moments of its history of sport with the rural revolution of the farming communities as a statement of political independence and assertion However during the German occupation of Denmark Danish sport was part of a European collaboration which characterized a number of the occupied countries not least in the Nordic area After the Second World War Denmark embraced international body cultures with other European nations in particular Eastern martial arts Denmark too as part of trends in the European region and the world became caught up in sport as a powerful contemporary political statement This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport
