One of the oldest departments of study, the department, since its inception in 1929, has always been a pioneer in the study of and research in English Language and Literature. The department has had the good fortune of being visited by renowned international dignitaries since its inception. Some of the faculty members have also gone abroad either for higher studies or to undergo short term training programs and thus the department has had the benefit of eminent scholars directing its activities. There are twenty six faculty members (Professors - 05; Associate Professors – 06; Assistant Professors – 15) who are conversant with both traditional and contemporary knowledge in English Literary Studies and strongly talented in its systematic dissemination.
