Machine Jeff Horton, Human-Animal Relationships in Times of Pandemic and Climate Crisis Josephine Browne, Zoi Sutton, 2024-09-02 This book situates sociological research as a vital tool for understanding and responding to the multispecies entanglements that cause and arise from states of crisis involving the environment, climate, and zoonotic disease transmission. Considering the consequences of a range of multispecies engagements that challenge the perceived distinction between the social worlds of humans and other animals, it explores the themes of crisis through a range of studies including ecological disturbance, consumer culture, intensive farming, and interspecies relations in urban life. With attention to central questions about life in the now normal, including the extent to which a human-animal perspective can contribute to our understanding of pandemics, the ideological foundations of mainstream norms for human-animal relations, and the scope of current and emerging social movements for reshaping human-animal relations, this volume represents a timely and important call for a sociological vision to embrace the implications of a multispecies planet and to expand the concepts of inclusion and justice. A reconsideration of the human-animal relation that seeks both to revise sociology's past and inform its future, Human-Animal Relationships in Times of Pandemic and Climate Crises will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in human-animal relations and the environment.

Draw Yourself A Happy Face Bennyness, 2014 Two years since his last volume of writings, No New Notifications, Bennyness returns with just as much cynicism, confusion, hope, and self-deprecation as before. However, this time there is a darkness beginning to break through as Bennyness lives two years of his life moving houses, fighting the mumps, misplacing his affection, again enjoying and sometimes not enjoying music, being embarrassed by his sister, and wishing for a simpler life.

Marine Mystique Frank Hernandez, 2000-07-21 Marine Mystique is an autobiographical work where I seek to render an account of my memories and experiences as a Marine Corps Drill Instructor. The book is framed with descriptions and the jargon. Explicit language related to life as a Marine. It is filled with depictions of individuals, conversations, and my inner thoughts and emotions about the training of recruits as they strive to become Marines. Discover the reason it is so important for a Drill Instructor to learn the ability to mask his own emotions. Learn what the making of a Marine is all about from the Drill Instructor's point of view. Feel the progression of pride as you turn each page, the pride that is the United States Marine Corps. Their Motto of Semper Fidelis Always Faithful, and then know the Mystique and the kinship that is so strong that these men and women are ready to die for one another. It all starts at Boot Camp and the Drill Instructor. And that is what this book is all about.
