Military Necessity in International Cultural Heritage Law Berenika Drazewska, 2021-12-13 This book offers the first comprehensive scholarly analysis of the current meaning and scope of military necessity a key concept in the international legal framework for the protection of cultural heritage during armed conflicts since the adoption of the 1954 Hague Convention Academic discussions commonly view military necessity uniquely through the lens of international humanitarian or international criminal law In her book Berenika Drazewska presents a more comprehensive perspective examining developments across various strands of international law arisen since 1954 This novel approach demonstrates how international cultural heritage law affords a particularly strict meaning to military necessity As a result the relative waiver will only be available to belligerents very rarely in truly extraordinary circumstances Drazewska's Military Necessity in International Cultural Heritage Law engages a significant issue in this rapidly evolving field of international law the inclusion of necessity in regulation of the protection of cultural heritage during armed conflict after 1945 Its very inclusion was viewed as a major concession which is only multiplied because of the difficulties of its application on the ground This thorny issue has come to the fore again with large scale cultural losses inflicted during recent armed conflicts Elegantly written and scholarly in its approach this book places this question and possible answers to it within the broader sweep of international law and recent developments not only in international humanitarian law but state responsibility international criminal law and international criminal law It offers a significant and timely reexamination and reconceptualization of this important topic Prof Ana Filipa Vrdoljak UNESCO Chair in International Law Cultural Heritage Faculty of Law University of Technology Sydney ISTFA 2017: Proceedings from the 43rd International Symposium for Testing and Failure Analysis ASM International, 2017-12-01 The theme for the November 2017 conference was Striving for 100% Success Rate Papers focus on the tools and techniques needed for maximizing the success rate in every aspect of the electronic device failure analysis process International Conflict and Security Law Sergey Sayapin, Rustam Atadjanov, Umesh Kadam, Gerhard Kemp, Nicolás Zambrana-Tévar, Noëlle Quénivet, 2022-07-21 This unique two volume book covers virtually the whole spectrum of international conflict and security law It proceeds from values protected by international law Part I through substantive rules in which these values are embodied Part II to international and domestic institutions that enforce the law Part III It subsequently deals with current challenges in the application of rules of international conflict and security law Part IV and crimes as the most serious violations of those rules Part V Finally in the section on case studies Part VI lessons learnt from a number of conflict situations are discussed Written by an international team of experts representing all the major legal systems of the world the book is intended as a reference work for students and researchers domestic and international judges as well as for legal advisers to governments and international and non governmental organisations Sergey Sayapin is Associate Professor and Associate Dean at KIMEP University School of Law in Almaty Kazakhstan Rustam Atadjanov is Assistant Professor at KIMEP University School of Law in Almaty Kazakhstan Umesh Kadam is formerly Additional Professor at the National Law School of India University Bangalore India and Legal Adviser with the International Committee of the Red Cross Gerhard Kemp is Professor of Law at the University of Derby in the United Kingdom Nicolás Zambrana Tévar is Associate Professor at KIMEP University School of Law in Almaty Kazakhstan Noëlle Quénivet is Professor in International Law at the University of the West of England Bristol Law School in the United Kingdom Export/Import Procedures and Documentation Donna
