

The background of the cover is a vibrant, abstract composition. It features a dark upper section with numerous bright, yellow-orange light spots that appear to be part of a fiber optic array or a starry sky, with purple and blue light rays emanating from them. Below this, a horizontal band of rainbow colors (red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple) stretches across the middle. In the lower-left corner, there is a stylized, golden-yellow bar chart or histogram. In the lower-right corner, a simple diagram of a pendulum is shown, consisting of a horizontal support line, a circular bob, and a rectangular weight hanging from it. The overall aesthetic is scientific and modern.
