Cultural Intelligence in the World of Work Yuan Liao, David C. Thomas, 2020-01-28 This book provides a comprehensive review of both the theoretical development and empirical study of the concept of cultural intelligence A review of previous work on cross cultural competence provides an historical backdrop against which the two main theories of cultural intelligence are presented These two approaches as well as the assessments derived from them are compared and evaluated Issues associated with the measurement of cultural intelligence are examined in detail An important feature of the review of the empirical work on cultural intelligence is that results are discussed in terms of the relationship of the four sub dimensions of the Cultural Intelligence Scale CQS and also that results using the Short Form Cultural Intelligence Scale SFCQ and other measures of the concept are included The review of empirical work includes studies that cast cultural intelligence as an antecedent as a dependent variable and as a moderator and a mediator Cultural intelligence at the group and organizational levels are also discussed Finally this review sets the stage for a discussion of appropriate future directions in the study of cultural intelligence Scholars in organizational psychology interested in the concept of cultural intelligence will find this an essential guide

Leading with Cultural Intelligence David Livermore, Soon ANG, 2015-04-08 Succeeding in today s global market requires a new set of skills than it did when the pioneers of the twentieth century were making their mark but don t let that intimidate you from expanding your business beyond our borders In order to negotiate with vendors from other countries it is not necessary to immerse yourself in the culture for an extended period of time or take a month long trip to learn what people are like As cross cultural interactions become increasingly virtual cultural intelligence or CQ becomes the key to taking your business global and doing so effectively Having done training and consulting for leaders in more than 100 countries David Livermore president and partner at the Cultural Intelligence Center has detailed a four step model for improving your CQ and maximizing your impact in managing across cultures In Leading with Cultural Intelligence Livermore will help you learn about Drive boost your motivation for and confidence in interacting with other cultures Knowledge understand the relevance of differences in religion values norms and languages Strategy plan ahead for unfamiliar cultural settings but remain flexible if actual experience differs from expectations Action successfully adapt your behavior to each situation Featuring fresh research case studies and statistics on the ROI of improving your CQ this new edition of Leading with Cultural Intelligence will help you thrive in any business environment whether it s across the world or in your own backyard

The Cultural Intelligence Difference -Special eBook Edition David Livermore,2011-05-30 Learn how to master the one skill you can t do without in today s global economy As an award winning author and global business leader David Livermore applies his social science and cultural intelligence CQ expertise to teach others how to thrive in increasingly multicultural workplaces and a globalized world Now in this essential book he shows you how to leverage the benefits of cultural intelligence for themselves including improved decision making negotiation networking and leadership skills to gain a crucial advantage in the crowded job market In The Cultural Intelligence Difference you ll explore customized strategies for improving interactions with people from diverse cultures new findings on the bottom line benefits of cultural intelligence and many examples of major organizations that use CQ to achieve success Most people know that some basic cultural sensitivity is important But few have developed the deep cultural intelligence needed to truly bridge the cultural gaps that exist in every workplace The Cultural Intelligence Difference delivers a powerful tool for navigating today s work world with finesse and success

Developing Multicultural Leadership using Knowledge Dynamics and Cultural Intelligence Dan Paiuc,2024-05-30 Combining organizational context knowledge dynamics and cultural intelligence the chapters here provide guidance on not only how to lead effectively in a multicultural context but to leverage these global workforces to increase bottom line results and improve employee satisfaction

Cross-Cultural Leadership Ahmad Salih,2020-06-11 For many decades management in its research and practice has been in need of an alternative approach and paradigm to understanding human behaviours Many studies and books have attempted to provide solutions to the individual which ended up being a cultural dilemma with little success This book provides a novel approach to address this dilemma by linking aspects from three knowledge domains Psychology Anthropology and Sociology Cross Cultural Leadership supports Cultural Intelligence CQ and makes it a practical construct and tool that both managers and researchers harness to understand what cultural Chameleon means The book also renders support to Douglaian Cultural Framework DCF by activating the role of the usually neglected fifth culture the hermit by linking it to the metacognitive dimension of CQ This link introduces for the first time the mechanism that individuals use to run through metacognitive processes to drive change This book is a tool for individuals to help them work efficiently outside their homeland Being an adaptive or culturally hybrid leader is among the most important competencies of the effective leaders in the 21st century By focusing on comprehending the five cultures as elaborated in DCF leaders and managers will be relieved from the dilemma of having to understand each and every national culture of their employees This book will be of value to researchers academics managers and students with an interest in leadership management organization studies globalization and innovation

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS

Zhiqing Zhang, Youbin Zhao, Xinjie Wang, 2020-05-26 With the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative and the development of Guangdong Hong Kong Macau Greater Bay Area the demand for translators and interpreters continues to grow in China The breakthrough in artificial intelligence which has contributed to an enormous improvement in the quality of machine translation means challenges and opportunities for translators and interpreters as well as studies of translation and interpreting Studies of translation and interpreting have been further expanded and diversified in the era of globalized communications The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world s languages and cultures By focusing on the connection between the two various researches have been conducted in all forms of communication between languages including translation interpreting cross cultural communication language teaching and the various specializations involved in such activities This has resulted in The Third International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters co organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University on its Zhuhai campus and South China Business College Guangdong University of Foreign Studies November 16 17 2019 The response to the conference was once more overwhelming which was partly attributed to the previous two conferences held successfully under the same title Apart from five keynote speakers over one hundred and fifty participants came from universities institutions or organizations from mainland China Spain New Zealand as well as Hong Kong and Macao to attend the event contributing over 130 papers in total Among the keynote speakers are internationally renowned scholars in translation studies such as Dr Roberto Valde n professor of English Linguistics at the University of Oviedo Spain and the Chief Editor of Perspective Studies in Translatology Dr Sun Yifeng chair professor of Translation Studies and head of the English Department at the University of Macau Dr Tan Zaixi distinguished professor of Shenzhen University and Chair Professor of Beijing Foreign Studies University and Professor Emeritus of Hong Kong Baptist University After careful evaluation and compilation 90 papers have been selected for this conference proceedings which was summarized into the following four topics Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice Translation and Cross cultural Studies Evaluation of Translation and Interpretation and Studies on the Teaching of Translation By no means is it difficult to find some interesting and thought provoking papers under each topic For example concerning Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice To Translate or not to Translate That is the Question On Metaphor Translation in Chinese Political works by Dong Yu explains that in judging whether or not a Chinese metaphor can be translated into English an indispensable step is to decide whether or not the two cultural connotations can be connected But this can easily be influenced by subjective factors Yu has suggested some ways in which subjective factors could be controlled to some extent so that the translator could be more confident in his or her decision He has also suggested three steps The first step is to assume that the cultural connotation of the Chinese metaphor can be connected with that of its English version For example the metaphor in could be translated as rain or shine The second step is to find out whether or not this translated version is acceptable both linguistically and culturally in English The third step is to consider the systematicity of the metaphor in regard with the context in both the source and target texts This involves a process of recontextualization When it comes to Translation and Cross cultural Studies On Translation of the English Guide interpreter from the Perspective of Intercultural Communication by Fengxia Liua and Xiaoning Bi points out that inbound tourism serves as a window through which foreign tourists get to know China so the interaction between the guide interpreters and foreign tourists are the typical activity of cultural communication Foreign language speaking guides are usually regarded as people to people ambassadors or cultural ambassadors who have played an essential role in the international tourist industry Therefore they argue that it is extremely important for tourist guides to cultivate their cross cultural communication awareness enhance their overall communicative competence observe and distinguish east and west differences with multi dimensional perspective transcend cultural barriers and learn to use translation skills Studies on the Teaching of Translation is another interesting topic that has attracted enormous attention such as Business Translation Teaching from the Perspective of Metaphors by Dandan Li which explores application of conceptual metaphor theory in the translation process of business lexicons business discourse and business English culture so as to provide a new perspective in business English pedagogy Another study entitled Cognitive Studies in Translation by Xin Huang analyzes the cognitive studies of translation interpreting processes over the past three decades with focus on the issues examined the findings reached as well as the recent development She explains that cognitive studies of translation process examine the translation competence on line translation behaviors such as how the eye gazes and how the words are typed and the brain activities when doing translation Special interests are paid to the working memory problem solving the executive function and some linguistic relative factors such as text difficulty Over the past thirty years the interest in the field has been gaining considerable momentum and increasing issues have been involved Finally she concludes that with the advancement of technologies and interdisciplinary approaches the black box the previously unforeseeable cognitive activities of how human process translation can be unfolded Considering the importance of integrating theory with practice the proceedings are therefore compiled in such a way as to be balanced and inclusive in the hope of summarizing current accomplishments as well as providing certain insights for teaching and further research in the field of translation and interpretation studies

Breaking Down Language and Cultural Barriers Through Contemporary Global Marketing

Strategies Khosrow-Pour, D.B.A., Mehdi, 2019-06-14 One of the most challenging obstacles for many businesses in successfully reaching a global market stems from cultural and language barriers and the lack of a clear understanding of this issue. It is critical for businesses to understand these cultural and language barriers and how to face them through effective communications and cultural sensitivity. The companies that will thrive and see the most success are the ones whose employees communicate and collaborate effectively with customers, suppliers, and partners all over the world. Breaking Down Language and Cultural Barriers Through Contemporary Global Marketing Strategies provides both empirical and theoretical research focused on ways that business professionals and organizations are breaking down cultural and language barriers, integrating cultural sensitivity, and implementing cross-cultural management practices into their daily business practices. Featuring research on topics such as origin effects, consumption culture, and cross-cultural management, managers, consultants, academic researchers, practitioners, business educators, and advanced students in various disciplines will find the content within this publication to be beneficial. Engagement of Intercultural Project Customers Patrick Lückmann, 2020-02-28 This book examines the effective and appropriate integration of project customers in intercultural settings. It first presents the theoretical background and the state of the art in intercultural project stakeholder management. The book then describes the use of qualitative and quantitative Delphi survey methods to produce a dataset and the development of a relational model for customer engagement in intercultural projects based on this dataset. The book can be used to inform future research in the area of international project management while also serving as a guide for project management practitioners who need to engage culturally diverse users, sponsors, and customers. Successful Global Leadership Ramon Henson, 2016-08-05 This book provides practical frameworks for anyone hoping to become a successful global leader and outlines the challenges that international firms face when managing across cultures. It highlights the cognitive, affective, and behavioral actions leaders can take to understand the differences between foreign values and traditions and how to develop a corporate environment where global leadership can thrive. Drawing on the latest research findings, interviews with executives, and the author's own teaching and consulting experience, this book emphasizes the need to adopt a cultural intelligence that embraces flexibility, openness, curiosity, and empathy. It provides advice and guidance on how to develop universal people management skills and navigate language barriers to avoid cross-cultural miscommunication. This multi-disciplinary book is essential reading for students and researchers of international business and management, I/O psychology, and organizations hoping to interact effectively with employees and clients across borders. The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 3, Issue 2, No. 4 IJIP.In, 2016-02-15 We experience here a feeling of joy while presenting the first issue of 2016. We thank you again, researchers who have presented their articles in this issue.
