Being Gay in Ireland Gerard Rodgers, 2018-06-20
 In Being Gay in Ireland Resisting Stigma in the Evolving Present Gerard Rodgers argues that existing theory and research on the lives of gay men often exhibits a social weightlessness such that self beliefs are frequently decoupled from an analysis of society History and conventions inform and shape gay men s self beliefs yet psychology as a discipline rarely dialogues with historical or political scholarship Rodgers corrects this oversight with a critical analysis of the decades of socio political struggle in Ireland and elsewhere Rodgers captures the lives of gay men who are situated in varied contexts and who all despite their different situations possess self beliefs that are shaped by wider historical traditions and evolving social change Rodgers argues that the nuances and particulars of self beliefs are significantly affected by wider historical traditions and evolving social and political changes Through his reconstruction Rodgers provides practitioners of applied psychological and therapeutic disciplines with an in depth picture of how historical context and social justice successes have interacted with gay men s self beliefs with a particular focus on how prosocial resistances against prejudice have incrementally eroded historical standards of gay stigma

American Literature and American Identity Patrick Colm Hogan, 2021-11-10
 In recent years cognitive and affective science have become increasingly important for interpretation and explanation in the social sciences and humanities However little of this work has addressed American literature and virtually none has treated national identity formation in influential works since the Civil War In this book Hogan develops his earlier cognitive and affective analyses of national identity further exploring the ways in which such identity is integrated with cross culturally recurring patterns in story structure Hogan examines how authors imagined American identity understood as universal democratic egalitarianism in the face of the nation s clear and often brutal inequalities of race sex and sexuality exploring the complex and often ambivalent treatment of American identity in works by Charlotte Perkins Gilman Eugene O'Neill Lillian Hellman Djuna Barnes Amiri Baraka Margaret Atwood N Scott Momaday Spike Lee Leslie Marmon Silko Tony Kushner and Heidi Schreck

Gender, Sex, and Sexualities Nancy Dess, Jeanne Marecek, Leslie Bell, 2018-01-15 For decades the field of gender sex and sexualities has been a focal point of increasing interest This inquiry has been ignited by successive waves of dramatic social change chief among them the re emergence of feminist movements in the U S and Europe in the late 1960s the sustained and increasingly successful bids for legal social and religious acceptance of non heterosexual sexualities in many parts of the world and the burgeoning number of people whether cisgendered gender variant trans or questioning whose individual and collective experiences of gender and sexuality warrant deeper understanding and further progress toward a fuller realization of human potential and civil rights In psychology the intellectual project of understanding gender sex and sexualities encompasses a variety of subfields spanning neuroscience and developmental cognitive social and cultural psychology as well as critical theory As such these approaches have inspired new and different psychological questions as well as increased interest in previously unfamiliar topics of investigation Edited by Nancy K Dess Jeanne Marecek and Leslie C Bell Gender Sex and Sexualities offers both students and scholars the tools they need to consider and approach such questions as how do children come to embrace or repudiate gendered activities and identities how do people experience intimacy desire and sexual arousal and what strategies can psychologists use to de center their own points of view and effectively contribute to a decolonial psychology As a result this volume will open new avenues of inquiry as well as cross disciplinary conversations for readers everywhere
