The Enchiridion on Faith, Hope, and Love Augustin ((saint ;), 1965 Enchiridion on Faith, Hope and

Love Saint Augustine, St Augustine, 2014-05-05 Excerpt Love 117 And now regarding love which the apostle says is greater than the other two that is faith and hope for the more richly it dwells in a man the better the man in whom it dwells For when we ask whether someone is a good man we are not asking what he believes or hopes but what he loves Now beyond all doubt he who loves aright believes and hopes rightly Likewise he who does not love believes in vain even if what he believes is true he hopes in vain even if what he hopes for is generally agreed to pertain to true happiness unless he believes and hopes for this that he may through prayer obtain the gift of love For although it is true that he cannot hope without love it may be that there is something without which if he does not love it he cannot realize the object of his hopes An example of this would be if a man hopes for life eternal and who is there who does not love that and yet does not love righteousness without which no one comes to it Now this is the true faith of Christ which the apostle commends faith that works through love And what it yet lacks in love it asks that it may receive it seeks that it may find and knocks that it may be opened unto it 246 For faith achieves what the law commands fides namque impetrat quod lex imperat And without the gift of God that is without the Holy Spirit through whom love is shed abroad in our hearts the law may bid but it cannot aid jubere lex poterit non juvare Moreover it can make of man a transgressor who cannot then excuse himself by pleading ignorance For appetite reigns where the love of God does not 247 118 When in the deepest shadows of ignorance he lives according to the flesh with no restraint of reason this is the primal state of man 248 Afterward when through the law the knowledge of sin 249 has come to man and the Holy Spirit has not yet come to his aid so that even if he wishes to live according to the law he is vanquished man sins knowingly and is brought under the spell and made the slave of sin for by whatever a man is vanquished of this master he is the slave 250 The effect of the knowledge of the law is that sin works in man the whole round of concupiscence which adds to the guilt of the first transgression And thus it is that what was written is fulfilled The law entered in that the offense might abound 251 This is the second state of man 252 But if God regards a man with solicitude so that he then believes in God s help in fulfilling His commands and if a man begins to be led by the Spirit of God then the mightier power of love struggles against the power of the flesh 253 And although there is still in man a power that fights against him his infirmity being not yet fully healed yet he the righteous man lives by faith and lives righteously in so far as he does not yield to evil desires conquering them by his love of righteousness This is the third stage of the man of good hope A final peace is in store for him who continues to go forward in this course toward perfection through steadfast piety This will be perfected beyond this life in the repose of the spirit and at the last in the resurrection of the body The Enchiridion on Faith, Hope and Love Saint Augustine, 2017-11-21 2017 Reprint of 1961 Edition Full facsimile of the original edition not reproduced with Optical Recognition software Edited with a new introduction by Henry Paolucci and with an historical analysis by Adolph von Harnack Augustine recounts that he wrote this book at the request of the person to whom I addressed it that he might have a work of mine which should never be out of his hands such as the Greeks call an Enchiridion Handbook There I think I have carefully treated the manner in which God is to be worshipped which knowledge divine Scripture defines to be the true wisdom of man The work is alternatively titled Faith Hope and Charity or The Enchiridion It is a compact treatise on Christian piety written in response to a request by an otherwise unknown person named Laurentius shortly after the death of Saint Jerome in 420 It is intended as a model for Christian instruction or catechesis As the title indicates the work is organized according to the three graces necessary for the Christian worship of God Faith Hope and Love Under Faith Augustine explains the use of the Apostles Creed in teaching Christian doctrine and in refuting heresies Under Hope he briefly explains the Lord s Prayer as a model of Christian prayer The final part is a discourse on Christian love or charity
