Nøhr, C.E. Kuziemsky, Z.S.-Y. procedures Wong, 2017-08-18 Health informatics applications will be a cornerstone of the next generation healthcare delivery system These applications will support the delivery of safe patient centered care and collaborative care delivery. The complexity of modern healthcare is delivered by many different specialties to many different patients with complex diseases and comorbidity A one size fits all approach is not adequate to reach the triple aim of improving the patient experience of care improving the health of populations and reducing the per capita cost of healthcare Health informatics applications must rather be built to be adaptable and sensitive to the complex contexts where they will be used The health informatics community has long been interested in the role that context plays in the design implementation and evaluation of Health IT We have come to realize that context is not just a passive characteristic that impacts Health IT usage but rather is embedded in the core of the users processes and outcomes that Health IT interacts with Therefore we need better approaches to study and understand its impact on Health IT usage in different healthcare settings This book contains the conference papers from CSHI 2017 Delivering 21st Century Healthcare Building a Quality and Efficiency Driven System It contains papers on a variety of topics that are divided into four sections Theoretical approaches to investigate context sensitive health informatics to generate robust evidence Redesigning healthcare work practices Patient participation in healthcare design and redesign and Human factors and usability The 2017 CSHI conference continues our efforts to develop robust scientific evidence on context and Health IT Ageing in a Nursing Home Rosalie Hudson, 2022-04-19 Spending the final chapter of your life in a nursing home is considered by many a fate worse than death Others however have found that through enlightened imaginative care even the frailest of lives can flourish The key to such a transformation is to replace the constricting custodial centres of the past with a more informed research based approach. This book is timely responding to evidence of the urgent need for change described in the Australian Royal Commission into Aged Care Quality and Safety Final Report Care Dignity and Respect and its predecessor subtitled Neglect In this book the author proposes a model of care that places the whole person at its centre sidestepping the constraints of a reductionist funding model that focusses on residents deficits and the proprietor's financial gain Aged care requires a comprehensive research based guide to fulfil this aim Narratives are included throughout the book to reinforce the fact that nursing home care is about individual residents and their unique lives Topics explored in various chapters include Ageing in a Changing Community Social Gerontological Care A Palliative Approach Community Expectations Ageing in a Nursing Home Foundations for Care takes a realistic approach that draws on contemporary research and narratives from the unique lives of older Australians who despite their frailty teach us how to care Such knowledge informs and influences their future The book is a resource intended for all who have a stake in the provision of best practice residential aged care and all who benefit from such care Its academic appeal will include those who design and teach courses in aged care gerontology general practice medicine nursing attendant care allied health and chaplaincy Academics and teachers will find useful well referenced material for their courses together with ample scope for Sap: How to Write a Report Functional Specification Linda R.
