Boyd,2017-04-17 A dramatic tension confronts every Christian believer and interpreter of Scripture on the one hand we encounter images of God commanding and engaging in horrendous violence one the other hand we encounter the non violent teachings and example of Jesus whose loving self sacrificial death and resurrection is held up as the supreme revelation of God s character in the New Testament How do we reconcile the tension between these seemingly disparate depictions Are they even capable of reconciliation Throughout Christian history many different answers have been proposed ranging from the long rejected explanation that these contrasting depictions are of two entirely different gods to recent social and cultural theories of metaphor and narrative representation The Crucifixion of the Warrior God takes up this dramatic tension and the range of proposed answers in an epic constructive investigation Over two volumes renowned theologian and biblical scholar Gregory A Boyd argues that we must take seriously the full range of Scripture as inspired including its violent depictions of God At the same time we must take just as seriously the absolute centrality of the crucified and risen Christ as the supreme revelation of God Developing a theological interpretation of Scripture that he labels a cruciform hermeneutic Boyd demonstrates how Scripture s violent images of God are completely reframed and their violence subverted when they are interpreted through the lens of the cross and resurrection Indeed when read through this lens Boyd argues that these violent depictions can be shown to bear witness to the same self sacrificial character of God that was supremely revealed on the cross
