Managing The Secondary School:

Staff Development in the Secondary School Chris Day, Roger Moore, 2018-05-11 Originally published in 1986 Those involved in management in schools are being urged to develop their management skills and many courses are developed for this purpose At the same time many new issues have arisen which require attention from managers in schools These include staff appraisal curriculum evaluation and action research This book examines major topics of present concern in the management of secondary schools It presents much new thinking on these major problems and reports on particular initiatives The aim is to help improve practice both by helping trainers focus their courses correctly and by encouraging those involved in school management to approach their work more purposefully School management is treated from the perspective of the industrial trainer the Local Education Authority higher education and the school practitioner

Managing the Secondary School Joan Dean, 1993 This new edition of Managing the Secondary School updates the consideration of the tasks and skills of the headteacher which was a feature of the first edition The book deals with all aspects of the headteachers role including marketing the school and managing the budget It also deals in some detail with the problems of managing change and with the role of governors and parents in today s schools Throughout the book Joan Dean considers the implications of the Education Reform Act and the National Curriculum Managing the Secondary School Roy Blatchford, 1985

Governance, Management, and Accountability in Secondary Education in Sub-Saharan Africa World Bank, 2008-02-14 Increasingly the role of management and governance is recognized as important for providing and delivering effective services at all levels of education In view of the growing demand for more and better services at secondary education levels these are crucial issues that must be addressed urgently Sub Saharan Africa s secondary education and training systems must become more efficient and more effective The current unit costs of junior and senior secondary education in most African countries prevent massive expansion of post primary education This demands a holistic approach to governance and management issues In parallel there is a demand from civil society and governments for greater accountability This study aims to present best practices and identify sustainable development plans for expansion and improved quality and efficiency in the delivery of secondary education in Sub Saharan Africa through better governance management and accountability Secondary School Administration : a Management Approach M. G. Hughes, 1978

The Art of Middle Management in Secondary Schools Peter Fleming, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2000 The skills required to be an effective middle manager in a secondary school are many and varied but people management skills lie at the heart of getting the best out of both teachers and pupils Motivating people and building a collaborative team ethos are at the core of effective management This book is about how middle managers can contribute to raising the quality of education in their schools through proficient team leadership Managing Schools Bryan T. Peck, 1998 Twenty six case studies provide an overview of some of the problems and issues facing school directors in the European Union member countries and in associated countries The studies highlight school management present a comparative analysis of the main developments and provides a range of examples illustrating how school directors have interpreted introduced and developed the European Dimension in their schools Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Managing Teams in Secondary Schools Les Bell,1992 Les Bell gives practical advice to teachers looking in particular at planning staff development and appraisal The need for effective communication is stressed and the skills required of the successful team leader are explored

Management of Distance Education Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-02-15 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Inside the SMT Mike Wallace,Valerie Hall,1994 There is a senior management team SMT in almost every secondary school but what do these team members actually do This is the first book to reveal their inside story It reports on research into six SMTs two of which the authors observed over a full year A new cultural and political perspective is used to explore how team members worked together and related to other staff and governors Teamwork is shown to be a high gain high strain approach it offers the potential for effective management especially in coping with multiple reforms but it is difficult to bring off Some problems are linked with a tension between the different status of members within the school management hierarchy and their right to make an equal contribution to the work of the team The authors put forward a series of hypotheses about SMT effectiveness which may be used as a starting point for team improvement efforts This stimulating and carefully argued account is essential reading for all who are interested in the contribution of senior staff in schools headteachers teachers governors trainers and providers of advanced courses in educational management Secondary School Administration Meredydd G. Hughes,1974-01-01 Managing People in Education Tony Bush,David Middlewood,1997-02-28 Aims to enhance management practice in education by presenting research findings and theory from a wide range of contributors Skills and Enterprise Update This is indeed a book which could be useful to a much larger readership than the normal closed circle of those working in education Managing Schools Today The book presents relevant research and theory in order to enhance management practice in education The editors intention is to articulate good practice on the basis of evidence in educational settings The ideas presented here are derived from international research and practice and apply to all phases of education with the emphasis on applying research findings to improve practice in schools and colleges Entrepreneurship and Public Management G. J. P. Maas,William Fox,1997 This work not only explores the space for innovation in the public service but translates this to practical terms and entrepreneurial strategies Secondary School Management Today Neil Adams,Stanley Thornes,1987 Classroom Management for Secondary Teachers Edmund T. Emmer,1997 This is a guide to classroom management incorporating classroom organization management and discipline It offers practical information to help develop effective classroom management systems such as arranging the physical space choosing rules and procedures and planning and conducting instruction maintaining appropriate behaviour using good communication skills addressing problem behaviour and managing special groups All the examples and cases are at the middle or secondary school level The content is so organized that it can be readily applied by new teachers to their classrooms The Journal of Education ,1904 The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain.
