Austen,2020-12-25 Mansfield Park considered the author's most ambitious novel was published anonymously as were all of Jane Austen's novels in 1814 While Sense and Sensibility and Pride and Prejudice are considered as one critic remarks the gay offsprings of her youth Mansfield Park is a far more mature darker novel written by a woman who had by then experienced more of the world As Adolphus Alfred Jack remarked in his 1897 Essay on the Novel Mansfield Park is more finished more subtle and quieter than her earlier works As Austen grew older he continues her powers grew and deepened while Pride and Prejudice is gay Mansfield Park is sombre Indeed it is of interest to note that it is Mary Crawford witty active and unable to stand still who is cast in the mold of other Austen heroines such as the effervescent Elizabeth Bennet in Pride and Prejudice and the silly meddling Emma Woodhouse in Emma while it is the weak mild mannered motionless often ill Fanny Price who remains the novel's central character and a highly likeable one at that Unlike the other heroines who have a myriad of lessons to learn Fanny possesses the innate sensibility expected of a Regency lady of this era Mansfield Park

author at the end of the book for a better understanding of the text 2 It also contains new and unique illustrations to give a better documentation and realism to the book3 This book has been checked and corrected for spelling errorsAbout thirty years ago Miss Maria Ward of Huntingdon with only seventhou sand pounds had the good luck to captivate Sir Thomas Bertram of Mansfield Park in the county of Northampton and to be thereby raised to the rank of a baronet s lady with all the comforts and consequences of an handsome house and large income All Huntingdon exclaimed on the greatness of the match and her uncle the lawyer himself allowed her to be at least three thousand pounds short of any equitable claim to it She had two sisters to be benefited by her elevation and such of their acquaintance as thought Miss Ward and Miss Frances quite as handsome as Miss Maria did not scruple to predict their marrying with almost equal advantage But there certainly are not so many men of large fortune in the world as there are pretty women to deserve them Miss Ward at the end of half a dozen years found herself obliged to be attached to the Rev Mr Norris a friend of her brother in law with scarcely any private fortune and Miss Frances fared yet worse Miss Ward s match indeed when it came to the point was not contemptible Sir Thomas being happily able to give his friend an income in the living of Mansfield and Mr and Mrs Norris began their career of conjugal felicity with very little less than a thousand a year But Miss Frances married in the common phrase to disoblige her family and by fixing on a lieutenant of marines without education fortune or connexions did it very thoroughly She could hardly have made a more untoward choice Sir Thomas Bertram had interest which from principle as well as pride from a general wish of doing right and a desire of seeing all that were connected with him in situations of respectability he would have been glad to exert for the advantage of Lady Bertram s sister but her husband s profession was such as no interest could reach and before he had time to devise any other method of assisting them an absolute breach between the sisters had taken place It was the natural result of the conduct of each party and such as a very imprudent marriage almost always produces To save herself from useless remonstrance Mrs Price never wrote to her family on the subject till actually married Lady Bertram who was a woman of very tranquil feelings and a temper remarkably easy and indolent would have contented herself with merely giving up her sister and thinking no more of the matter but Mrs Norris had a spirit of activity which could not be satisfied till she had written a long and angry letter to Fanny to point out the folly of her conduct and threaten her with all its possible ill consequences Mrs Price in her turn was injured and angry and an answer which comprehended each sister in its bitterness and bestowed such very disrespectful reflections on the pride of Sir Thomas as Mrs Norris could not possibly keep to herself put an end to all intercourse between them for a considerable period
