Employee Training Development 5th Edition:

Employee Training and Development Raymond A. Noe, 2012-10-01 Raymond Noe's Employee Training and Development sets the standard in this course area. First introduced in 1998, ETD became the market defining text within 6 months of publication. Its popularity is due to its lively writing style and relevant examples of the most up to date developments in training research and practice including the strategic role of training and the use of new technologies in training. Employee Training and Development 6th edition strikes a balance between research and real company practices. It provides students with a solid background in the fundamentals of training and development such as needs assessment, transfer of training, learning environment design methods and evaluation. To help students better understand the relationship between the main elements of the book, the book is now organized into five different parts. Part I focuses on the context for training and development and includes a chapter devoted to strategic training. Part II includes coverage related to the fundamentals of designing training programs. Chapters in Part II focus on needs assessment, learning theories and program design, transfer of training and training evaluation. Part III focuses on training and development methods and includes chapters devoted to traditional training methods, e-learning and the use of technology in training, employee development and special issues in employee development such as managing diversity, succession planning and cross cultural preparation. Chapters in Part IV cover career issues and how companies manage careers as well as challenges in career management such as dealing with work life conflict, retirement and socialization. Finally, Part V provides a look at the future of training and development. The Oxford Handbook of Lifelong Learning, 2021-06-01 This Handbook provides a comprehensive and up to date examination of lifelong learning. Across 38 chapters including twelve that are brand new to this edition, the approach is interdisciplinary, spanning human resources, development, adult learning, educational perspective, psychology, career and vocational learning, management and executive development, cultural anthropology, the humanities and gerontology. This volume covers trends that contribute to the need for continuous learning, considers psychological characteristics that relate to the drive to learn, reviews existing theory and research on adult learning, describes training methods and learning technologies for instructional design and explores current and future challenges to support continuous learning. Key Tools for Human Resource Management (Collection) Steven Director, Wayne Cascio, John Boudreau, 2013-08-08 HR managers are under intense pressure to become strategic business partners. Many unfortunately lack the technical skills in financial analysis to succeed in this role. Now, respected HR management educator Dr. Steven Director addresses this skill gap head on. Writing from HR's viewpoint, Director covers everything mid level and senior level HR professionals need to know to formulate, model and evaluate their HR initiatives from a financial and business perspective. Drawing on his unsurpassed expertise working with HR executives, he walks through each crucial financial issue associated with strategic talent management, including the quantifiable links between workforces and business value, the cost/benefit analysis of HR and strategic financial initiatives.

and specific issues related to total rewards programs Unlike finance books for non financial managers Financial Analysis for HR Managers focuses entirely on core HR issues More than ever before HR practitioners must empirically demonstrate a clear link between their practices and firm performance In Investing in People Wayne F Cascio and John W Boudreau show exactly how to choose implement and use metrics to improve decision making optimize organizational effectiveness and maximize the value of HR investments They provide powerful techniques for looking inside the HR black box implementing human capital metrics that track the effectiveness of talent policies and practices demonstrating the logical connections to financial and line of business and using HR metrics to drive more effective decision making Using their powerful LAMP methodology Logic Analytics Measures and Process the authors demonstrate how to measure and analyze the value of every area of HR that impacts strategic value

Persaud, 2005-11-04 Frontline employees represent the bloodline of an organization This applied dissertation focused on development of a training program to improve skills necessary for quality student customer service Six research questions were answered First what skills are required to enhance customer service satisfaction Second what are employees perception of attitudes and expectations relative to delivery of goods and services Third what action is required to improve employees performance to effect customer satisfaction Fourth what content knowledge skills and procedures are necessary for inclusion in the training plan Fifth how can training best be structured and developed to improve the necessary skills Sixth how and by whom should the plan be implemented and if implemented how should it be evaluated The development problem solving methodology was used to answer the research questions Additionally a Frontline Service Employees Perceived Training Needs Survey was administered to gather information relative to the recommended training program. The research questions were answered through procedures that involved formative and summative committees examination of the program content, format, design, and evaluation method. The final project was a recommended frontline service employees training program. Conclusions drawn from the study revealed the following: a) a training program should be implemented to enhance skills required for better student customer services within the organization; b) a training program for frontline employees should include skills pertaining to active listening, trust, rapport, telephone etiquette, problem solving, and conflict resolution; and clear understanding and knowledge of the organization's policies and procedures; c) trainees should have the choice and flexibility of mode of instruction and location of training; and d) an evaluation plan should be established posttraining to ensure that quality and program objectives are continuously being met. The recommended training program was submitted to the leaders of the organization who have the authority to approve its implementation.
