This is a true story of something that happened in December 1997. My brother, Ben, and I were going to spend Christmas with our aunt in Australia. We flew first into Changi Airport, to spend three days visiting Singapore. Lucky we had found a place to stay near the Botanic Gardens, where we visited our first morning. We were astonish at the heat of the sun but we felt cool beneath the trees and the gentle spray from the huge fountain. We spent a hot but enjoy afternoon shopping in Orchard Road. As we turned the corner on our way back, I gasped.

"Look, it's snowing!" Ben, although, said, snow never falls in Singapore. Then, I saw, where the ground seemed covered with snow, a golden coach outside the hotel.

It had six white horses, which were drawn by Santa Claus, in his bright red suit. Artificial snow crystals are falling softly from the lampposts arranged on either side. It was a perfect Christmas snow scene, on the hottest day of the year in Singapore!

Globalisation, Employment and Education in Sri Lanka Angela W. Little, Siri T. Hettige, 2014-05-23 Since the late 1970s Sri Lanka has undergone a socio economic transformation from protectionism towards economic liberalisation and increasing integration into the world economy Through a systematic comparison of these periods of economic change 1956 1977 and 1977 to the present Angela W Little and Siri T Hettige examine the impact of this transformation on education youth employment and equality of opportunity in Sri Lanka The book charts Sri Lanka's shift from a predominantly agricultural economy to one dominated by services and manufacturing a reduction in unemployment rising educational and occupational levels expectations and achievements and a reduction in poverty In turn it reveals a growing role for the private sector and foreign interests in post secondary education and a modest growth in private education at the primary and secondary levels as well as widening social disparities in access to qualifications training and skills The Sri Lankan experience of and engagement with globalisation has been tempered by a long running ethnic conflict that hindered economic and social development and diverted considerable public funds into defence and war Now that the war is won the challenge is how to invest in human resource development and the fulfilment of the expectations of youth from all ethnic and social groups This challenge requires serious policy analysis the generation of more state revenues the reallocation of existing public resources and a political commitment to the winning of a sustainable peace and stability This book makes an important contribution to the broader international literature on the implications of globalisation for education policy and practice and to the interaction of exogenous and endogenous forces for educational change It deals with the tension between the high social demand for education and the growing demand for specialised skills in a changing economy As such it has a wide interdisciplinary appeal across education policy and politics Asian education South Asian society youth policy sociology of education political economy of social change and globalisation Daily Graphic Elvis D. Lauwerys,David G. Scanlon,2013-10-28 First Published in 2005 Almost everywhere policies designed to broaden access to education and to promote equality of opportunity are now pursued In consequence the importance of examinations grows since success in them determines entry to higher education and thus to professional posts They are therefore a major instrument of social mobility and promotion which affects social structure by applying criteria of selection nearly always accepted unconsciously and uncritically The aim of this text in selecting Examinations as the theme of the 1969 WORLD YEAR BOOK was to present a comparative analysis of the way in which examinations are devised administered and assessed to find out why we are examining and to look at the ways in which we examine to see if these are efficient relevant and reliable General Certificate English Alan Etherton,1994-11-04 General

Certificate English is a comprehensive course book written for students taking a GCE O level examination in English language. The contents are based on the syllabuses and past papers of the University of Cambridge and the University of London Edexcel. English Language Teacher Preparation in Asia Subhan Zein, Richmond Stroupe, 2018-08-06 Bringing together a comprehensive range of extended research based chapters English Language Teacher Preparation in Asia provides comprehensive insight into policy research and practical aspects of teacher preparation for English teachers at pre service level across multiple contexts in Asia. Written by local and international scholars specialising in TESOL Teacher education and acknowledging the increasingly complex demands made on teachers of English in view of globalisation the book explores the multiple factors which are key to effective professional learning. Chapters consider how pre service teachers are best prepared for the diverse contexts in which English is learnt and taught in settings throughout Asia and draw on in depth research studies to provide rich fully contextualised coverage of aspects of teacher preparation including curriculum design programme development policy professional learning communities assessment education and teaching practicum. A timely contribution to the field of teacher preparation this text will be an invaluable resource for teacher educators pre service teachers and academics involved in the preparation of English teachers in Asia. Global Adaptations of Community College Infrastructure Gaulee, Uttam, 2018-09-07 Community colleges in America have evolved a great deal from the establishment of the first community college in Chicago 117 years ago. The idea of American community colleges serves as a catalyst for connective solutions between industry college and the community on a global level. Global Adaptations of Community College Infrastructure provides emerging research on various contextual adaptations of the idea of the American community college as a connective solution to engaging community and industry. This research will help any nation or state forge policies on adapting the concept toward democratization of economic opportunities for all individuals as opposed to the current elitist system of higher education. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as diploma pathway programs and the development of education institutions in various countries this book is ideally designed for academicians economic and educational policymakers higher education professionals and individuals engaged in expansion and democratization of post secondary education worldwide. The Use of English, 2005 Daily Graphic I.K.
