Intelligence , To Build as Well as Destroy Andrew J. Gawthorpe,2018-12-15 For years the so called better war school of thought has argued that the United States built a legitimate and viable non Communist state in South Vietnam in the latter years of the Vietnam War and that it was only the military abandonment of this state that brought down the Republic of Vietnam But Andrew J Gawthorpe through a detailed and incisive analysis shows that in fact the United States failed in its efforts at nation building and had not established a durable state in South Vietnam Drawing on newly opened archival collections and previously unexamined oral histories with dozens of U S military officers and government officials To Build as Well as Destroy demonstrates that the United States never came close to achieving victory in the late 1960s and early 1970s Gawthorpe tells a story of policy aspirations and practical failures that stretches from Washington D C to the Vietnamese villages in which the United States implemented its nationbuilding strategy through the Office of Civil Operations and Revolutionary Development Support known as CORDS Structural factors that could not have been overcome by the further application of military power thwarted U S efforts to build a viable set of non Communist political economic and social institutions in South Vietnam To Build as Well as Destroy provides the most comprehensive account yet of the largest and best resourced nation building program in U S history Gawthorpe s analysis helps contemporary policy makers diplomats and military officers understand the reasons for this failure At a moment in time when American strategists are grappling with military and political challenges in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria revisiting the historical lessons of Vietnam is a worthy endeavor Army History ,2018 Flight Risk Forrest L. Marion,2018-10-15 From the 1920s Afghanistan maintained a small air arm that depended heavily upon outside assistance Starting in 2005 the United States led an air advisory campaign to rebuild the Afghan Air Force AAF In 2007 a formal joint combined entity led by a U S Air Force brigadier general began air advisor work with Afghan airmen Between 2007 and 2011 these efforts made modest progress in terms of infrastructures personnel and aircraft accessions and various training courses But by 2010 advisors increasingly viewed AAF command and control C2 as a problem area that required significant improvement if a professional air force was to be built In the spring of 2011 major institutional changes to AAF C2 procedures were being introduced when nine U S air advisors were killed The attack was the worst single incident loss of U S Air Force personnel in a deployed location since 1996 and the worst insider attack since 2001 From the day of that tragic event the cultural chasm between Afghanistan and the West became more apparent This dilemma continues with no end in sight to an air advisory mission of uncertain long term value History of U.S. Federal and State Governments' Work with Soybeans (1862-2017) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2017-04-24 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 362 photographs and illustrations Free of charge in digital PDF format on Google Books History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in Korea \(544 CE to 2021\) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2021-05-31 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 144 photographs and illustrations Free of charge in digital PDF format History of Newburyport, Mass John James Currier,1906 Early History of Soybeans and Soyfoods Worldwide (1024 BCE to 1899): William Shurtleff,Akiko Aoyagi,2014-11-04 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive index 351 color photos or illustrations Free of charge in digital format on Google Books History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in Illinois (1851-1954) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2022-02-23 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 368 photographs and illustrations many in color Free of charge in digital PDF format History of Miso and Its Near Relatives William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2021-05-05 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 363 photographs and illustrations many in color Free of charge in digital PDF format Treatment for Violent Individuals. History and Treatment of Domestic Violence Fatima Sidat,2016-03-04 Essay from the year 2013 in the subject Sociology Law and Delinquency grade 2 2 course Criminology language English abstract Violence within a criminal setting produces some interesting questions both in terms of how the criminal justice system can look to manage and reduce the impact of violence on society as a whole but also within the family setting The purpose of this paper is to consider the generic question about whether treatment is the best way to deal with violent individuals with particular reference to the issues associated with domestic violence By looking at this area of violence there is the opportunity to consider wider social and psychological issues associated with violent conduct This paper will firstly look at the definitions of domestic violence and the way in which the policies and criminal procedures have evolved to deal with this area Any difficulties with the issues of domestic violence will be discussed recognising that domestic violence often needs to be looked at in a wider context than simply looking at one immediate criminal activity as it is often seen to be a repeated situation within the family setting History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in Germany (1712-2016), 2nd ed. William Shurtleff;
