History Paper 1 November 2014:

"e:Original Sin"e;? Kumar Ramakrishna,2016-05-13 e Revisioniste or e alternativee historians have increasingly questioned elements of the Singapore Story the master narrative of the nation s political and socioeconomic development since its founding by the British in 1819 Much criticism focuses especially on one defining episode of the Story the internal security dragnet mounted on 2 February 1963 against Communist United Front elements on the island known to posterity as Operation Coldstore The revisionists claim that Coldstore was mounted for political rather than security reasons and actually destroyed a legitimate Progressive Left opposition personalized by the charismatic figure of Lim Chin Siong rather than a dangerous Communist network as the conventional wisdom holds Relying on both declassified and some previously unseen classified sources this book challenges revisionist claims reiterating the historic importance of Coldstore in helping pave the way for Singapore s remarkable journey from Third World status to First in a single generation Miseducation A. J. Angulo,2016-04-01 A provocative collection that explores how intentional ignorance seeps into formal education Honorable Mention for the PROSE Education Theory Award of the Association of American Publishers Ignorance or the study of ignorance is having a moment Ignorance plays a powerful role in shaping public opinion channeling our politics and even directing scholarly research The first collection of essays to grapple with the historical interplay between education and ignorance Miseducation finds ignorance and its social production through na vet passivity and active agency at the center of many pivotal historical developments Ignorance allowed Americans to maintain the institution of slavery Nazis to promote ideas of race that fomented genocide in the 1930s and tobacco companies to downplay the dangers of cigarettes Today ignorance enables some to deny the fossil record and others to ignore climate science A J Angulo brings together seventeen experts from across the scholarly spectrum to explore how intentional ignorance seeps into formal education Each chapter identifies education as a critical site for advancing our still limited understanding of what exactly ignorance is where it comes from and how it is diffused maintained and regulated in society Miseducation also challenges the notion that schools are ideally unimpeachable sites of knowledge production access and equity By investigating how laws myths national aspirations and global relations have recast and at times distorted the key purposes of education this pathbreaking book sheds light on the role of ignorance in shaping ideas public opinion and policy A History of Modern Tourism Eric Zuelow,2015-10-26 Tourism is one of the largest industries in the world yet leisure travel is more than just economically important It plays a vital role in defining who we are by helping to place us in space and time In so doing it has aesthetic medical political cultural and social implications However it hasn t always been so Tourism as we know it is a surprisingly modern thing both a product of modernity and a force helping to shape it A History of Modern Tourism is the first book to track the origins and evolution of this pursuit from earliest times to the present From a new understanding of aesthetics to scientific change from the invention of steam power to the creation of aircraft from an elite form of education to family car trips to see national shrines this book

offers a sweeping and engaging overview of a fascinating story not yet widely known Engaging the Emotions in Spanish Culture and History Luisa Elena Delgado, Pura Fernández, Jo Labanyi, 2021-04-30 Rather than being properties of the individual self emotions are socially produced and deployed in specific cultural contexts as this collection documents with unusual richness All the essays show emotions to be a form of thought and knowledge and a major component of social life including in the nineteenth century which attempted to relegate them to a feminine intimate sphere The collection ranges across topics such as eighteenth century sensibility nineteenth century concerns with the transmission of emotions early twentieth century cinematic affect and the contemporary mobilization of political emotions including those regarding nonstate national identities The complexities and effects of emotions are explored in a variety of forms political rhetoric literature personal letters medical writing cinema graphic art soap opera journalism popular music digital media with attention paid to broader European and transatlantic implications ISSUES ON WAR & PEACE Julie Kimber, Phillip Deery, Warwick Eather, Drew Cottle, Nic Maclelland, Jonathan Strauss, Michael Hamel-Green, Jeanette Debney-Joyce, Doris LeRoy, David Faber, 2015-02-15 These proceedings carry some of the papers delivered at the 14th Biennial Labour History Conference 11-13 February 2015 Titled Fighting Against War Peace Activism in the Twentieth Century the conference was held at the University of Melbourne A conference book of refereed papers has been published under that title and these proceedings carry the non-refereed papers received for publication There is one exception to that rule the paper written by Warwick Eather and Drew Cottle published below which underwent double-blind refereeing It is an important paper which demonstrates with compelling evidence that the rabbit was anything but a curse to the many men, women and children who took advantage of the rabbit industry's resilience during the economic storms for much of the twentieth century It exemplifies how meticulous research in labour history can provide an entirely new understanding of an otherwise much-maligned animal in Australia The next three papers all concern opposition to nuclear testing from the 1950s to the 1980s When read together they provide a convincing argument for the importance and efficacy of the diverse anti-nuclear movements in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands Whilst there are inevitable overlaps these papers emphasise different and often neglected dimensions the struggle for recognition of and compensation for the devastating effects of nuclear testing the internal dynamics of the various nuclear disarmament organisations and an evaluation of their impact on government policy culminating in the Rarotonga Treaty of 1985 The last three papers cover aspects of World War I, the Cold War and the Vietnam War The first focuses on the role of one redoubtable woman, Ettie Rout, in challenging popular misconceptions about venereal disease held by military authorities and the soldiers themselves The next paper examines the life of a Czech Lutheran pastor, Professor Josef Hrom, who visited Australia twice during the 1950s Hrom, who attempted to juggle Christianity with Socialism, which in the prevailing climate of strident anti-communism provoked hostile receptions and Cold War invective The final paper in this collection brings to life through the reflections of a participant-observer the preparations conduct and impact of Adelaide s largest anti war demonstration the protest against the invasion of Iraq in 2003 organised by the NoWar collective Its efforts undertaken by a broad range of rank and file activists is a fitting reminder and exemplar of the theme of our conference peace activism in the twentieth century A Living History of Immunology

Kendall Arthur Smith,2015-11-04 In the highly competitive world of biomedical science often the rush to publish and to be recognized as first with a new discovery concept or method is lost in the hurly burly of the moment as the maddening crowd moves on to the next new thing One of the great things about immunology today is that it has only become mature as a science within the last half century and especially within the past 35 years as a consequence of the revolution of molecular immunology which has taken place only since 1980 Consequently most of those who have contributed to our new understanding of how the immune system functions are still alive and well and still contributing Thus A Living History of Immunology collates many stories from the investigators who actually performed the experiments that have established the frontiers of immunology Accordingly this volume combats revisionist science by those who want to alter history by telling the stories a different way than actually happened In this regard one of the good things about science vs other disciplines is that we have the written record of what was done when it was done and by whom Even so we do not have the complete story or narrative of how and why experiments were done and what made the differences that led to success This volume captures and chronicles some of these stories from the past fifty years in immunology Spatial Cultures Sam Griffiths,Alexander von Lünen,2016-06-10

What is the relationship between how cities work and what cities mean Spatial Cultures Towards a New Social Morphology of Cities Past and Present announces an innovative research agenda for urban studies in which themes and methods from urban history social theory and built environment research are brought into dialogue across disciplinary and chronological boundaries The collection confronts the recurrent epistemological impasse that arises between research focussing on the description of material built environments and that which is concerned primarily with the people who inhabit govern and write about cities past and present A reluctance to engage substantively with this issue has been detrimental to scholarly efforts to understand the urban built environment as a meaningful agent of human social experience Drawing on a wide range of historical and contemporary urban case studies as well as a selection of theoretical and methodological reflections the contributions to this volume seek to historically geographically and architecturally contextualize diverse spatial practices including movement encounter play procession and neighbourhood The aim is to challenge their tacit treatment as universal categories in much writing on cities and to propose alternative research possibilities with implications as much for urban design thinking as for history and the social sciences Postapocalyptic

Fantasies in Antebellum American Literature John Hay,2017-10-05 This book examines the widespread use of postapocalyptic fantasies in American literary texts in the early nineteenth century Spectacular Television Helen Wheatley,2016-06-20 In terms of visual impact television has often been regarded as inferior to cinema It has been characterised as sound led and consumed by a distracted audience Today it is tempting to see the rise of HD television as ushering in a new era of spectacular television Yet since its earliest days the medium has been epitomised by spectacle and offered its viewers diverse forms of visual pleasure Looking at the early promotion of television and the launch of colour broadcasting Spectacular Television traces a history of television as spectacular attraction from its launch to the contemporary age of surround sound digital effects and HD screens In focusing on the spectacle of nature landscape and even our own bodies on television via explorations of popular television dramas documentary series and factual entertainment and ambitious natural history television Helen Wheatley answers the questions what is televisual pleasure and how has television defined its own brand of spectacular aesthetics

FACETS OF CONTEMPORARY HISTORY M. Thilakavathy,R.K. Maya,2019-06-05 This book Facets of Contemporary History is a selection of research papers presented in the International Conference on Contemporary History which was held on 30th and 31st January 2015 This conference was organized by the Department of History Tourism and Travel Management Ethiraj College for Women Chennai It gives us great pleasure to put together a selection of the papers for the public in the form of a book in the interest of research Contemporary History refers to the history of the immediate past or that which can be expected to remain in living memory While there are areas of history which have branched off from contemporary history such as social history and economic history this conference took a very broad look at contemporary events from not just a historical but also a social science perspective This Book contains 6 Sections namely Political History Socio Cultural History Gender Economic History Environment and Tourism We would like to place on record the Management of the college for the moral and financial support extended in the conduct of the Conference and in the production of the book Thanks are due to our respected Chairman of the Trust Board Mr V M Muralidharan for all his support and encouragement Heartfelt thanks are due to Prof Dr Karu Nagarajan Member Secretary TAMIL NADU STATE COUNCIL FOR HIGHER EDUCATION for their generous financial Assistance towards the conduct of the Conference We would be failing in our duty if we do not thank the faculty of the Department of History Tourism and Travel Management for their support and encouragement in the conduct of the Conference

US Policies in Central Asia Ilya Levine,2016-06-10 Democracy promotion security and energy are the predominant themes of US policy in Central Asia after the Cold War This book analyses how the Bush administration understood and pursued its interests in the Central Asia states namely Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Kazakhstan Uzbekistan Turkmenistan It discusses the shift in US interests after September 11 and highlights key ideas actors and processes that have been driving US policy in Central Asia The author examines the similarities between the Bush and Obama administrations attitudes towards the region and he points to the inadequacy of the personality focused partisan accounts that have all too often been deployed to describe the two presidential administrations To understand US Central Asian policy it is necessary to appreciate the factors behind its continuities as well as the legacies of the September 11 attacks Using case studies on the war on terror energy and democracy drawing on personal interviews with Americans and Central Asians as well as the fairly recent releases of declassified and leaked US Government documents via sources like the Rumsfeld Papers and Wikileaks the author argues that the US approached Central Asia as a non unitary state with an ambiguous hierarchy of interests Traditionally domestic issues could be internationalised and non state actors were able to play significant roles The actual relationships between its interests were neither as harmonious nor as conflicted as the administration and some of its critics claimed Shedding new light on US relations with Central Asia this book is of interest to scholars of Central Asia US Politics and International Relations

The Australian Government Muscling in on School Education Grant Rodwell, 2020-05-07 Despite the Australian Constitution implying school education to be a state responsibility the Commonwealth has increasingly interfered with state school education The Australian Government Muscling in on School Education therefore offers a historical account of this government involvement in Australian education from federation to the present day providing a much needed fully updated and relevant overview the topic Arguing that education has become an arena for competing political forces this book examines the powerful influence of the Commonwealth over education and the political motives behind it exploring how politics influences aspects of the curriculum teaching standards assessment and reporting funding teacher selection and policy more broadly Ultimately questioning whether this influence is in the interests of the members of the community who depend on education the book holds government engagement in education to account Taking the major epochs of federalism as an organizing framework the book's chapters include explorations of The efficiency dynamic and the progressive years 1919 39 Postwar imperatives and the Menzies years 1949 72 Coordinative federalism and treading softly the Whitlam years 1972 5 and Fraser years 1975 83 Corporate federalism the Hawke Keating years 1983 96 Supply side federalism and globalization the Howard years 1996 2007 National control and the Rudd Gillard Abbott Turnbull and Morrison years 2007 15 A thorough and significant examination of the historical engagement of the Australian government in education this book is essential reading for student teachers and postgraduate students in education studies and politics

Carolina Israelite Kimberly Marlowe Hartnett, 2015-05-11 This first comprehensive biography of Jewish American writer and humorist Harry Golden 1903 1981 author of the 1958 national best seller Only in America illuminates a remarkable life intertwined with the rise of the civil rights movement Jewish popular culture and the sometimes precarious position of Jews in the South and across America during the 1950s After recounting Golden's childhood on New York's Lower East Side Kimberly Marlowe Hartnett points to his stint in prison as a young man after a widely publicized conviction for investment fraud during the Great Depression as the root of his empathy for the underdog in any story During World War II the cigar smoking bourbon loving raconteur landed in Charlotte North Carolina and founded the Carolina Israelite newspaper which was published into the 1960s Golden's writings on race relations and equal rights attracted a huge popular readership Golden used his celebrity to editorialize for civil rights as the momentous story unfolded He charmed his way into friendships and lively correspondence with Carl

Sandburg Adlai Stevenson Robert Kennedy and Billy Graham among other notable Americans and he appeared on the Tonight Show as well as other national television programs Hartnett's spirited chronicle captures Golden's message of social inclusion for a new audience today Social Advantage and Disadvantage Hartley Dean, Lucinda Platt, 2016 Through the overarching lens of the concepts of social advantage and disadvantage this new and original edited volume with contributions by 14 distinguished authors provides an overview of a variety of conceptual frameworks and a spectrum of social inequalities processes and divisions It discusses poverty social exclusion capability deprivation rights violations social immobility and human or social capital deficiency From a global European and UK perspective it addresses the origins and effects of advantage and disadvantage in relation to family and childhood education work and old age and the implications of divisions based on gender race ethnicity migration religion neighbourhood and the experience of crime The Routledge History of Human Rights Jean Quataert, Lora Wildenthal, 2019-09-05 The Routledge History of Human Rights is an interdisciplinary collection that provides historical and global perspectives on a range of human rights themes of the past 150 years The volume is made up of 34 original contributions It opens with the emergence of a new internationalism in the mid nineteenth century examines the interwar League of Nations and the United Nations eras of human rights and decolonization and ends with the serious challenges for rights norms laws institutions and multilateral cooperation in the national security world after 9 11 These essays provide a big picture of the strategic political and changing nature of human rights work in the past and into the present day and reveal the contingent nature of historical developments Highlighting local national and non Western voices and struggles the volume contributes to overcoming Eurocentric biases that burden human rights histories and studies of international law It analyzes regions and organizations that are often overlooked The volume thus offers readers a new and broader perspective on the subject International in coverage and containing cutting edge interpretations the volume provides an overview of major themes and suggestions for future research This is the perfect book for those interested in social justice grass roots activism and international politics and society The Voice of the Past Paul Thompson, 2017-02-24 Oral history gives history back to the people in their own words And in giving a past it also helps them towards a future of their own making Oral history and life stories help to create a truer picture of the past and the changing present documenting the lives and feelings of all kinds of people many otherwise hidden from history It explores personal and family relationships and uncovers the secret cultures of work It connects public and private experience and it highlights the experiences of migrating between cultures At the same time it can bring courage to the old meaning to communities and contact between generations Sometimes it can offer a path for healing divided communities and those with traumatic memories Without it the history and sociology of our time would be poor and narrow In this fourth edition of his pioneering work fully revised with Joanna Bornat Paul Thompson challenges the accepted myths of historical scholarship He discusses the reliability of oral evidence in comparison with other sources and considers the social context of its development He looks at the relationship between memory the self and identity He traces oral history through its own past and weighs up the recent achievements of a movement which has become international with notably strong developments in North America Europe Australia Latin America South Africa and the Far East despite resistance from more conservative academics This new edition combines the classic text of The Voice of the Past with many new sections including especially the worldwide development of different forms of oral history and the parallel memory boom as well as discussions of theory in oral history and of memory trauma and reconciliation It offers a deep social and historical interpretation along with succinct practical advice on designing and carrying out a project The Voice of the Past remains an invaluable tool for anyone setting out to use oral history and life stories to construct a more authentic and balanced record of the past and the present

A Military History of India since 1972 Arjun Subramaniam, 2021-06-09 A Military History of India since 1972 is a definitive work of military history that gives the Indian military its rightful place as a key contributor to Indian democracy Arjun Subramaniam offers an engaging narrative that combines superb storytelling with the academic rigor of deep research and analysis It is a comprehensive account of India's resolute responsible and restrained use of force as an instrument of statecraft and how the military has played an essential role in securing the country's democratic tradition along with its rise as an economic and demographic power This book is also about how the Indian nation state and its armed forces have coped with the changing contours of modern conflict in the decades since 1972 These include the 2016 surgical or cross border strikes by the Indian Army's Special Forces across the line of control with Pakistan the face off with the Chinese at Doklam in 2017 and in Ladakh in 2020 the preemptive punitive strikes by the Indian Air Force against terrorist camps in Pakistan in 2019 and the large scale aerial engagement between the Indian Air Force and the Pakistan Air Force the following day These conflicts also include the long running insurgencies in the northeast terrorism and proxy war in Jammu and Kashmir separatist violence in Punjab and the Indian Peacekeeping Force's intervention in Sri Lanka The author also includes a chapter on the development of India's nuclear capabilities Arjun Subramaniam enlivens the narrative with a practitioner's insights amplified by interviews and conversations with almost a hundred serving and retired officers including former chiefs from all three armed forces for an in depth exploration of land air and naval operations The structure of the book offers readers a choice of either embarking on a comprehensive and chronological examination of war and conflict in contemporary India or a selective reading based on specific time lines or campaigns
