Larger cities attract large amounts of people. This is not a new concept, but it often creates complicated problems. The solutions are even more difficult. Many large cities with growing populations have been using formal and violent crime rates. One solution has been to create team culture to reduce crime. This is simple: the evidence shows that the creation more problems than solutions. In searching for answers to violent crime, the "team" members should not act as a culture for team because it doesn't reduce crime. It has more harm than good, and targets the people the cities are trying to protect.
