and reduce the impact of the disease. However, they have negatively impacted mental well-being and behaviors, either triggering the onset of new psychiatric symptoms and diseases or amplifying pre-existing ones. The pandemic and lockdown measures have also been associated with reduced access to treatment and facilities all over the world, further worsening mental health outcomes. The impact on mental health, although universal, varied between nations. Cultural and societal variables, including norms, values, religion, and stigma, have played an important role in shaping COVID-19 related mental health symptoms, including anxiety, depression, grief, psychosis, and addiction. These sociocultural factors have also molded how mental health interventions are tailored and provided. Highlighting the intertwining relationship between the pandemic, mental health, and sociocultural factors are essential to managing emerging mental health symptoms adequately.

Iran in an Emerging New World Order Ali Fathollah-Nejad, 2021-05-22. This book critically develops and discusses Iran's geopolitical imaginations and explores its various foreign policy schools of thought and their controversies. In doing so, the book covers Iran's foreign policy and international relations from 9/11 all the way to Rouhani's rise in late 2014. Accounting for both domestic and the international balance of power, the book theorizes the post-unipolar world order of the 2000s, dubbed imperial interpolarity, examines Iran's relations with non-Western great powers in that era, and offers a critique of the Rouhani doctrine and its economic and foreign policy visions. Forged in the fires and intense deliberations of a PhD undertaken at a most unique institution of higher learning in the world, Ali Fathollah Nejad has produced one of the most informative and evocative studies of Iran's foreign policy and international relations to date. Framed in a highly original theoretical approach, Ali's nuanced analysis, drawing on a lorry load of primary and secondary sources, details the process and context of policy in the Islamic Republic, thus producing an unrivalled and lasting account of modern Iran's worldview and the behaviour of this revolutionary state in a fast-changing world.

Anoush Ehteshami, Professor of International Relations, author of the forthcoming The 100 Years War for Control of the Middle East (Princeton University Press, 2021). Ali Fathollah Nejad has established himself as one of the most insightful observers of Iranian politics. Providing the analytical background to his assessments of Tehran's foreign policy in the 21st century, this book comes out opportunely at a time when a new US administration is about to re-engage with Iran.
