Immigrant Student Achievement and Education Policy Louis Volante, Don Klinger, Ozge Bilgili, 2018-03-21 This book examines immigrant student achievement and education policy across a range of

Western nations It is divided into 3 sections Part 1 introduces the topic of immigrant student achievement and the performance disadvantage that is consistently reported across a range of international jurisdictions Part 2 then presents national profiles from scholars in ten countries England Germany Italy Sweden Finland Netherlands Republic of Ireland Canada Australia and New Zealand These educational jurisdictions were selected because they represent a range of Western nations engaged in large scale reform efforts geared towards enhancing their immigrant students achievement Each of the national profiles provides a brief overview of the evolution of the cultural composition of their respective school aged student population explains the trajectory of achievement results in non immigrant and immigrant student groups in relation to both national and international large scale assessment measures and discusses the effectiveness of policy responses that have been adopted to close the achievement gap between non immigrant and immigrant student populations It also examines the relationships between education policies and immigrant student achievement and discusses how education policies have evolved across various cultural contexts In conclusion Part 3 analyzes cross cultural approaches designed to address the performance disadvantage of immigrant students and proposes future areas of inquiry stemming from the national profiles The book offers insights into a diverse cross section of nations and policy approaches to addressing the performance disadvantage

The Online Informal Learning of English G. Sockett, 2014-09-26 Young people around the world are increasingly able to access English language media online for leisure purposes and interact with other users of English This book examines the extent of these phenomena their effect on language acquisition and their implications for the teaching of English in the 21st century

Life in a New Language Ingrid Piller, Donna Butorac, Emily Farrell, Loy Lising, Shiva Motaghi-Tabari, Vera Williams Tetteh, 2024 International migration and the social diversity it creates constitute one of the key global challenges of the early 21st century Language and communication barriers can compromise equitable access in diverse societies and where socioeconomic disadvantage becomes entrenched it poses risks to security productivity and quality of life Clearly this is an important issue and migrants and their language choices are heavily politicized though political and media debates often rely on anecdotal conjecture or are ill informed Life in a New Language examines the language learning and settlement experiences of 130 migrants to Australia from 34 different countries in Africa Asia Europe and Latin America over a period of 20 years Reusing data shared from six separate sociolinguistic ethnographies the book illuminates participants lived experience of learning and communicating in a new language finding work and doing family Additionally participants experiences with racism and identity making in a new context are explored The research uncovers significant hardship but also migrants courage and resilience The book has implications for language service provision migration policy open science and social justice movements

Latino Immigrant Youth and Interrupted Schooling Marguerite Lukes, 2015-02-17 This book offers an innovative look at the pre and post migration educational experiences of immigrant young adults with a particular focus on members of the Latino community Combining quantitative data with original interviews this book provides an engaging and nuanced look at a population that is both ubiquitous and overlooked challenging existing assumptions about those categorized as dropouts and closely examining the historical contexts for educational interruption in the chosen subgroup The combination of accessible prose and compelling new statistical data appeals to a wide audience particularly academic professionals education practitioners and policy makers

Cultural Migrants and Optimal Language Acquisition Fanny Forsberg Lundell, Inge Bartning, 2015-08-04 This volume investigates cultural migrants people who from their own free will move to another country because of their interest in the target language and culture Chapters include studies on cultural migrants acquiring French Italian Spanish and English and consider linguistic psycholinguistic sociolinguistic and pragmatic aspects of language acquisition Cultural migrants have social and psychological advantages when acquiring a second language as adults and the study of their linguistic knowledge and production increases our understanding of the possibilities and limits of L2 ultimate attainment The work thus fills a gap in our understanding of high level proficiency and will be of interest to researchers working in the field of SLA as well as to social scientists studying the relationship between language culture and integration

Enjoying the Track of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Memorandum English Second Language 2013

In a world used by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous interaction, the melodic splendor and mental symphony created by the written word frequently fade in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent sound and distractions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of Memorandum English Second Language 2013 a wonderful literary prize overflowing with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional trip, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound influence resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving evaluation, we shall investigate the book's main harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
