The Strategy of Nonviolent Defense Robert J. Burrowes,2015-10-26 Because of the way in which the history of nonviolence has been marginalized relatively few people have a sense of the rich history of nonviolent struggle or realize that it can be systematically planned and applied Nevertheless the historical record illustrates that nonviolent struggle is a powerful form of political action But can it be effective against military aggression The Strategy of Nonviolent Defense answers this question in the affirmative by first defining the notion of social cosmology the four mutually reinforcing features that determine the character of any society It then devotes attention to strategies for dealing with conflict in particular to developing a strategic theory and framework for planning a strategy of nonviolent defense In order to develop this theory Burrowes synthesizes insights drawn from the strategic theory of Carl von Clausewitz the nonviolence of Mahatma Gandhi and recent human needs and conflict theory

Defending Democracy Giovanni Capoccia, 2007-09-01 Winner Best Book on European Politics 2005 European Politics and Society Section American Political Science Association How does a democracy deal with threats to its stability and continued existence when those threats come from political parties that play the democratic game In Defending Democracy political scientist Giovanni Capoccia studies key European nations between World Wars I and II which survived such democratic crises A comprehensive and thoughtful historical analysis of the democracies of interwar Europe Defending Democracy provides a unique perspective on the many lessons to be learned from their successes and failures With this exclusively empirical investigative approach Capoccia develops a methodology for analyzing contemporary democracies such as Algeria Turkey Israel and others where similar political conditions are present Given the rise of terrorism and the persistence of extremism in both established and new democracies today continued research and dialogue on the defense of democracy are necessary for its preservation
