VOLUME II TEACHER NOTES

Chapter 8

1. How is Frankenstein's feeling now that Frankenstein has had some time to process the monster's request? Frankenstein notes his "repugnance to the task which was imposed on" and laments that his father's thought with the law will require a substantial amount of time, energy, and emotional investment (140).

2. What proposal does Mr. Frankenstein have for Frankenstein? How does Frankenstein feel about the idea? Mr. Frankenstein would like Frankenstein to marry Elizabeth as soon as possible, so their union will help alleviate the family's grief and despair following William and Justine's death (140). Frankenstein feels a sense of "horror" and "dread" because his hope of happiness is extinguished by the monster's demand for a companion (141).

3. What plan does Frankenstein arrange with his father? What? Frankenstein arranges a two-year-long pleasure tour with Elizabeth and Frank with Henry Clerval, which would give him time to work on the monster's companion without feeling pressure from his family or influence from the monster (142).

4. What role do nature and the natural world play in this chapter? Frankenstein continues to reflect descriptions of the natural world around him as he and Henry journey through the countryside and mountainous landscapes. Clerval voices his profound admiration for nature, while Frankenstein notes his own suppressed love for the world around him (142). While the nature of his monster, Frankenstein's love of nature seems to be tarnished.
