

Whereas the Citizens of the United States, it becomes necessary for our people to declare the political truths which have connected them with each other, and to secure among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a solemn appeal to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. ¶

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Tyranny, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. ¶

- He has refused to assent to Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till he should be pleased to sign them, and when so suspended, he has utterly refused to assent to them. ¶
- He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inseparable to them, and inseparable to freemen only. ¶

He has called together legislative Bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. ¶

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. ¶

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the Legislative powers, necessarily of Absolutism, have returned to the Hands of one man; for this purpose, he has surrounded himself with a
