A Western Vampire Novel

A black silhouette of a cowboy wearing a wide-brimmed hat, standing on a horse. The cowboy is facing away from the viewer, looking towards a bright sunset. The background is a gradient of orange and yellow, with dark silhouettes of mountains and trees in the distance. The author's name is printed in white text across the middle of the horse's body.

Flashback James Michael Hunter, 2008 Laura McCain has screamed herself awake again Her old nightmare is back And now the timid kindergarten teacher is convinced that someone is following her watching her every move It could just be coincidence that she and the chillingly memorable man seem to show up at all the same places Perhaps her paranoia is just a result of her deep fear of change After all so much has changed in her life recently To make matters worse Laura is now supposed to travel halfway across the country to take possession of a family estate Hoping that the estate holds the secret to why Laura's parents would never talk about their past

Flashback Dawn (A Serialized Novel), Part Three: "The Red-Eye Shift" Wayne Kyle Spitzer, 2018-01-13 He hadn't run far when he came across the first body as well as the first raptor the body laying slit open from throat to crotch while the raptor devoured its unspooled intestines and Red squeezed off a round blowing a hole in its head which shot a stream of dark blood no less than six feet before the beast dropped like a sandbag and Red circled around to find the others but mostly to find Charlotte He heard her shout above the engine of one of the rides Red I'm over here The Scrambler He scanned the amusements quickly and saw her long brown hair blowing from one of the ride's carriages she had activated the thing and sought refuge on it and was now being swung and whipped about dizzily even as a trio of cavern raptors tried to attack He ran to the fence which encircled the attraction and quickly chambered a round but found it difficult to target any animals as they scrambled to dodge the carriages darting this way and that with frantic precision even as they persisted in the assault

Flashback Dawn (A Serialized Novel), Part Two: "The Devil's Shambhala" Wayne Kyle Spitzer, 2018-01-12 You all need to understand something he said finally slowly re-slinging his gun and that is that before I found this place I was precinct commander of an entire police force dedicated to combating these things And if there's one thing we learned He paused smiling a little to himself We He seemed to dismiss the thought If there's one thing we learned before our unit was torn to pieces one thing they learned my men before being bitten in half beheaded slit open by sickle claws so that their intestines unspooled across the city streets like sausage links is that these things are not animals He smiled to himself again as though reliving a lifetime's worth of humbling nightmares No an animal is something comprehensible even relatable An animal is something flesh and blood same as you or me with the same needs the same hunger the same will to survive But these things these so-called dinosaurs and prehistoric cats they're not animals not the way we understand them They're weapons They have purpose Intent They've been infused with it somehow Someone something has weaponized them against us He nodded slowly distantly Those lights in the sky I think And I can promise you this they will not go away The haunting smile returned as he shook his head They won't give up you understand And they won't stop until every man woman and child in this compound has been torn apart and devoured
