Biological terms: Interphase, Anaphase, Metaphase, Telophase, Collenchyma, phloem, Sclerenchyma, Parenchyma, cuticula, Transpirations, stomata, neuron, organic compound, connective tissue, chromatin, chromosome, foramen magnum, axial skeleton, cranium
Chemistry of life	Cells
Difference between organic and inorganic compounds	Difference between animal cell and plant cell
Examples of organic and inorganic compounds	All the cell organelles and functions/rolls
Monomers of all organic compound	Describe the build of the nucleus, mitochondria, and chloroplast
Elements of all the organic compounds	Investigation: Osmose and diffusion (Look at the apparatus that we use and how to set up this Investigation)
Vitamins A, B, C, D, and E, and there deficiency diseases they can cause	Explain osmose and diffusion
Enzymes
- Lock and key model
- Function of enzymes
Influence of temperature and pH on enzyme action
Mitosis	Plant tissue
All the phases can identify and give reasons for your answers	Build and function of: Collenchyma, Sclerenchyma, Parenchyma, Phloem, Xylem and stomata
Product of Mitosis	Definition of tissue
Difference between telophase in plant cells and animal cells
Biological importance of Mitosis
Cancer: - Uncontrolled cell division and growth: Causes and treatment of cancer Function and build of: Stomata, Xylem, and root hair
	Adaptions of Xylem for movement of water upwards
Animal tissue	Plant organs
Name and identify all the animal tissues and where in the human body are they located.	The labels and functions of the dorsiventral leaf.
Functions of all the animal tissues	Adaptions of the different parts of the leaf
Name all the connective tissues	Definition of an organ
Support and transport in plants	Support in animals
Labels of dicotyledonous stem and root	All the labels of the skeleton
Difference between a dicotyledons root and stem	Where do we find long bones in the skeleton
	Function of the skeleton
Investigation: The rate of transpirations (Potometer)
The effect of environmental factors on transpiration (Wind, Temperature and Light.)

Life Science Paper November 2014 Scope:

Towards an embodied science of intersubjectivity: Widening the scope of social understanding research

Ezequiel Di Paolo, Hanne De Jaegher, 2015-06-16 An important amount of research effort in psychology and neuroscience over the past decades has focused on the problem of social cognition. This problem is understood as how we figure out other minds relying only on indirect manifestations of other people's intentional states which are assumed to be hidden, private and internal. Research on this question has mostly investigated how individual cognitive mechanisms achieve this task. A shift in the internalist assumptions regarding intentional states has expanded the research focus with hypotheses that explore the role of interactive phenomena and interpersonal histories and their implications for understanding individual cognitive processes. This interactive expansion of the conceptual and methodological toolkit for investigating social cognition we now propose can be followed by an expansion into wider and deeply related research questions beyond but including that of social cognition narrowly construed. Our social lives are populated by different kinds of cognitive and affective phenomena that are related to but not exhausted by the question of how we figure out other minds. These phenomena include acting and perceiving together, verbal and non-verbal engagement, experiences of disconnection, management of relations in a group, joint meaning making, intimacy, trust, conflict negotiation, asymmetric relations, material mediation of social interaction, collective action, contextual engagement with socio-cultural norms, structures and roles etc. These phenomena are often characterized by a strong participation by the cognitive agent in contrast with the spectatorial stance typical of social cognition research. We use the broader notion of embodied intersubjectivity to refer to this wider set of phenomena. This Research Topic aims to investigate relations between these different issues to help lay strong foundations for a science of intersubjectivity, the social mind writ large. To contribute to this goal we encouraged contributions in psychology, neuroscience, psychopathology, philosophy and cognitive science that address this wider scope of intersubjectivity by extending the range of explanatory factors from purely individual to interactive, from observational to participatory.

Power and Energy Richard Kong, 2015-05-06 Power and Energy contains 86 selected papers from the International Conference on Power and Energy CPE 2014 Shanghai China 29-30 November 2014 and presents a wide range of topics: Energy management planning and policy making, Energy technologies and environment, Energy prospects, Conventional and renewable power generation, Power system management. Analysis of Creationism in the United States from Scopes (1925) to Kitzmiller (2005) and its Effect on the Nation's Science Education System Elizabeth Watts, 2018 Creationism is based on a fundamental belief in the inerrancy of the bible and negatively affects science education because creationist proponents insist on the inclusion of supernatural explanations for the appearance of species, in particular the origin of humans. This detrimental effect on education is particularly relevant in the United States where almost 70% of the population rejects the idea of naturalistic evolution and the majority of American students struggle to meet the college readiness benchmarks in science and math This dissertation provides a comprehensive look at the issue from historical judicial and educational perspectives Twenty four legal cases in the United States regarding anti evolutionary strategies were analyzed in detail Strategic trends were identified ranging from the statewide banning of evolution in public schools to the required teaching of Creation Science The exact effect of creationist political activity was discerned through the analysis of state science standards and textbook adoption processes which illustrated the creationists ability to lobby for a diminished coverage of evolution in science standards and textbooks It was found that despite attempts made by scientific and educational agencies to provide guidelines such as the Next Generation Science Standards the majority of American state science standards continue to be sub par and one of the major flaws of these standards is the overall attempt to weaken the coverage of evolution throughout the standards A similar loss of quality occurs in textbooks since publishers engage in self censorship in order to avoid controversial topics such as evolution in order to prevent their books from being rejected An examination of the free choice learning materials revealed that creationist proponents are very active and successful in producing books films and museums for the sole purpose of promoting creationism Moreover a brief look at the creationist movement in Germany provided a powerful comparison to the United States and elucidated the key components necessary for a creationist movement to exist and flourish namely the presence of fundamentalist willing to fight to get anti evolutionary materials introduced into science classrooms This study provides new insights into the creationist phenomenon present not only in the United States but also increasingly present in European countries such as Germany Understanding the detrimental link between creationism and science education will help the science community realize that this topic needs to be continually readdressed and that it is imperative that these creationist trends are not dismissed as inconsequential

Dual-use life science research and biosecurity in the 21st Century: Social, Technical, Policy, and Ethical Challenges Jonathan E. Suk, Kathleen M. Vogel, Amanda Jane Ozin, 2015-06-04 In September 2011 scientists announced new experimental findings that would not only threaten the conduct and publication of influenza research but would have significant policy and intelligence implications The findings presented a modified variant of the H5N1 avian influenza virus hereafter referred to as the H5N1 virus that was transmissible via aerosol between ferrets These results suggested a worrisome possibility the existence of a new airborne and highly lethal H5N1 virus that could cause a deadly global pandemic In response a series of international discussions on the nature of dual use life science arose These discussions addressed the complex social technical political security and ethical issues related to dual use research This Research Topic will be devoted to contributions that explore this matrix of issues from a variety of case study and international perspectives

Atlas of Macroscopes Katy Börner, Elizabeth G. Record, Todd Theriault, 2025-10-14 A fascinating data adventure through the lens of macroscopes which offer us illuminating and holistic views of our ever changing world In Atlas of Macroscopes Katy B rner Elizabeth Record and Todd Theriault take you on an epic data adventure You will explore data landscapes designed as uniquely interactive spaces and learn more about our world and your place in it You will gain new perspectives on how to gather understand and communicate data as well as how to best use it You will discover what it means to touch data that informs and inspires Transcending the static nature of the maps featured in the initial trilogy this fourth Atlas showcases 40 real life macroscopes or interactive data visualizations that were displayed in the first decade 2015 2024 of the traveling exhibit Places Spaces Mapping Science Encompassing vast amounts of data macroscopes give us holistic views of complex systems or networks They provide an entry point for scientists and laypeople alike and empower us to engage directly with large datasets and to conduct our own lines of questioning As interactive tools macroscopes connect data creators and users As portals to continuously evolving data macroscopes can serve as windows to the dynamics of any terrain personal or professional local or global and offer key insights into our surroundings and even our place in the universe While big data is creating new ways to view and understand information macroscopes help us see the big picture as we seek to better navigate our ever changing world

Information Science and Applications 2017 Kuinam Kim,Nikolai Joukov,2017-03-16 This book contains selected papers from the 8th International Conference on Information Science and Applications ICISA 2017 and provides a snapshot of the latest issues encountered in technical convergence and convergences of security technology It explores how information science is core to most current research industrial and commercial activities and consists of contributions covering topics including Ubiquitous Computing Networks and Information Systems Multimedia and Visualization Middleware and Operating Systems Security and Privacy Data Mining and Artificial Intelligence Software Engineering and Web Technology The proceedings introduce the most recent information technology and ideas applications and problems related to technology convergence illustrated through case studies and reviews converging existing security techniques Through this volume readers will gain an understanding of the current state of the art information strategies and technologies of convergence security The intended readerships are researchers in academia industry and other research institutes focusing on information science and technology

Art and Future Peter Stupples,Jane Venis,2018-04-18 This selection of essays examines the future of art in a changing world In particular contributors discuss the agency of art in conditions of ecological threats to the natural world to climate change and the effects of globalisation neoliberal economics and mass tourism Following the lead of Chicago based Frances Whitehead whose essay is a key text some contributors take positions on working with local government agencies to embed art thinking within development projects going back to the art thinking at the centre of Kazimir Malevich s work in Vitebsk one hundred years ago in Russia Other papers highlight small scale art interventions that bring ecological issues to public notice and suggest positive responses whilst others discuss large scale problems brought about by the social economic and laissez faire history of the emerging Anthropocene with possible dystopic outcomes and Marketing Alexander Nill,2015-06-29 Exploring both the theoretical and the applied aspects of the role ethics plays in marketing this Handbook analyzes key issues in order to advance our understanding and provide an overview of the state of the art in this vital field Society, Organizations and the Brain: building towards a unified cognitive neuroscience perspective Carl Senior,Nick Lee,Sven Braeutigam,2015-07-02 This e book brings together scholars in both the neurosciences and organizational sciences who have adopted various approaches to study the cognitive mechanisms mediating the social behavior that we see within organizations Such an approach has been termed by ourselves and others as organisational cognitive neuroscience In recent years there has been a veritable increase in studies that have explored the cognitive mechanisms driving such behaviors and much progress has been made in understanding the neural underpinnings of processes such as financial exchange risk awareness and even leadership However while these studies are informative and add to our understanding of human cognition they fall short of providing evidence based recommendations for practice Specifically we address the broader issue of how the neuroscientific study of such core social behaviors can be used to improve the very way that we work To address these gaps in our understanding the chapters in this book serve as a platform that allows scholars in both the neurosciences and the organizational sciences to highlight the work that spans across these two fields The consolidation of these two fields also serves to highlight the utility of a singular organizational cognitive neuroscience This is a fundamentally important outcome of the book as the application of neuroscience to address economically relevant behaviors has seen a variety of fields evolve in their own right such as neuromarketing neuroeconomics and so forth The use of neuro scientific technologies in particular fMRI has indeed led to a bewildering and somewhat suffocating proliferation of new approaches however the speed of such developments demands that we must proceed carefully with such ventures or risk some fundamental mistakes The book that you now hold will consolidates these new neuroscience based approaches and in doing so highlight the importance of this approach in helping us to understand human social behavior in general Taken together the chapters provide a framework for scholars within the neurosciences who wish to explore the further the opportunities that the study of organisational behavior may provide

Life Science Paper November 2014 Scope Book Review: Unveiling the Magic of Language

In an electronic digital era where connections and knowledge reign supreme, the enchanting power of language has become apparent than ever. Its power to stir emotions, provoke thought, and instigate transformation is really remarkable. This extraordinary book, aptly titled "Life Science Paper November 2014 Scope," written by a very acclaimed author, immerses readers in a captivating exploration of the significance of language and its profound effect on our existence. Throughout this critique, we will delve to the book's central themes, evaluate its unique writing style, and assess its overall influence on its readership.
