Course Description: Ninth grade English is a survey course that is designed to enhance student's reading, grammar, vocabulary, speaking, and writing abilities.

Major Works to be Covered:

Non-fiction, The Secret Life of Bees, To Kill a Mockingbird, Romeo and Juliet

Major Themes to be Explored:

Appearance vs. Reality, Hopes and Dreams, The Human Spirit, Ideals and Values, Innocence and Experience, Identity, Journeys, War and Peace, Loyalty and

Betrayal,

Fate vs. Free Will

Essential Questions to be Explored:

How does family play a role in shaping our beliefs?

When should an individual take a stand in opposition to an individual or larger group?

How does an individual's point of view affect the way they deal with conflict?

Do we have choices concerning fairness and justice?

What are the causes and consequences of prejudice and injustice, and how does an individual's response to them reveal his/her true character?

How can a person's decisions and actions change his/her life?

What is the meaning of life?

How can we ever be certain of our reality?

What is love?

How does literature reveal the values of a given culture or time period?

What does it mean to grow up?

Do you believe that things are fated no matter what, or do you believe that your actions can change the course of your life?

The following is also a part of the course:

Paragraph construction, short essays, speeches, a research paper and project, reading quizzes (both announced and unannounced), exams, journals, Word within the Word vocabulary, grammar, literary and poetic terminology, a study of fiction and non-fiction selections, small and large group discussions, daily preparation, daily participation, anything additional from the instructor.

These components will be taught in such a way as to align with both District and State goals.

Course Objectives: "Ninth grade students will practice and apply skills necessary to reading high school materials and communicating complex ideas effectively in a variety of situations. They will apply analytic and critical reading skills to make and justify inferences about meaning in fiction and persuasive and expository texts, write focused multi paragraph compositions to persuade and explain, and compose and deliver effective speeches for a variety of purposes and audiences."
