

Chapter 1

Government- the way society organizes itself

Needed to provide public goods

- Public goods benefit everyone but no individual group on its own can afford
 - Defense
 - Currency
 - Public order

Capitalism- Private land ownership that allows people to keep their profit to benefit society through competition

Laissez-faire- requires little to no government interference of the economy even when regulation is in public interests

Socialism- Government owns land and production and redistributes profits to the people for their benefit. Some private ownership of property exists.

Communism- uses revolution to bring complete equality through force

Forms of government

Autocracy- government by a single leader

Monarchy- single non-elected leader through hereditary lines

Oligarchy- government by a small group that is not accountable to the citizens

Democracy- a system of rule that permits citizens to play a significant part in the government process, and election of key public officials

- Representative democracy (republic)- governments are run by elected officials who represent the interests of their constituents
- Direct democracy- citizens vote on all legislation (town meetings)

Totalitarian- governments recognize no limits on their authority

Constitutional government- limited both in what they can do and the methods they can employ
