

Government: The Final Study Guide

Understand how our country came to be, how the system was designed to work, how things have changed over time. After studying each chapter, consider the changes according to how important you think they are. Consider some issues that might be discussed in class but are not included, perhaps it's not what you think is important, but I might argue that it's really important. Think about the changes I think are important for people to know. I want to give them a chance to think about the changes I think are important. I want to give them a chance to think about the changes I think are important. I want to give them a chance to think about the changes I think are important.
