South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this

Legal Integration and Language Diversity C. J. W. Baaij, 2018 How can the European Union create laws that are uniform in a multitude of languages Specifically how can it attain both legal integration and language diversity simultaneously without the latter compromising the former C J W Baaij argues that the answer lies in the domain of translation A uniform interpretation and application of EU law begins with the ways in which translators and jurist linguists of the EU legislative bodies translate the original legislative draft texts into the various language versions In the European Union law and language are inherently connected The EU pursues legal integration i e the incremental harmonization and unification of its Member States laws for the purpose of reducing national regulatory differences between Member States However in its commitment to the diversity of European languages its legislative institutions enact legislative instruments in 24 languages Language Diversity and Legal Integration assesses these seemingly incompatible policy objectives and contemporary translation practices in the EU legislative procedure and proposes an alternative source oriented approach that better serves EU policy objectives Contrary to the orthodox view in academic literature and to the current policies of the EU this book suggests that the English language version should serve as the original and only authentic legislative text Translation into the other language versions should furthermore avoid prioritizing clarity and fluency over syntactic correspondence and employ neologisms for distinctly EU legal concepts Ultimately Baaij provides practical solutions to the conflict between the equality of all language versions and the need for uniform interpretation and application of EU law
