Practice Theory and Research Gert Spaargaren, Don Weenink, Machiel Lamers, 2016-12-19 There has been an upsurge in scholarship concerned with theories of social practices in various fields including sociology geography and management studies This book provides a systematic introduction and overview of recent formulations of practice theory organised around three important themes the importance of analysing the role of the non human alongside the human the reflexive nature of social science research and the dynamics of social change Combining a rich variety of detailed empirical research examples with discussion of the relevance of practice theories for policy and social change this book represents an excellent sourcebook for all academic and professional researchers interested in working with practice theory A Biographical Encyclopedia of Early Modern Englishwomen Carole Levin, Anna Riehl Bertolet, Jo Eldridge Carney, 2016-11-03 From the exemplary to the notorious to the obscure this comprehensive and innovative encyclopedia showcases the worthy women of early modern England Poets princesses or pirates the women of power and agency found in these pages are indeed worth knowing and this volume will introduce many female figures to even the most established scholars in early modern studies Rather than using the conventional alphabetical format of the standard biographical encyclopedia this volume is divided into categories of women Since many women will fit in more than one category each woman is placed in the category that best exemplifies her life and is cross referenced in other appropriate sections This structure makes the book an interesting read for seasoned scholars of early modern women while students need not already be familiar with these subjects in order to benefit from the text Another unusual feature of this reference work is that each entry begins with some incident from the woman's life that is particularly exciting or significant Some entries are very brief while others are extensive Each includes a source listing The book is well illustrated and liberally sprinkled with quotations of the time either by or about the women in the text Science and Football VIII Jens Bangsbo, Peter Krstrup, Peter Riis Hansen, Laila Ottesen, Gertrud

Pfister, Anne-Marie Elbe, 2016-11-25 Science and Football VIII showcases the very latest scientific research into the variety of sports known as football These include soccer the national codes American football Australian rules football and Gaelic football and the rugby codes union and league Bridging the gap between theory and practice this book is by far the most comprehensive collection of current research into football presenting important new work in key areas such as physiology of training performance analysis fitness assessment nutrition biomechanics injury and rehabilitation youth football environmental physiology psychology in football sociological perspectives in football Science and Football VIII is an essential resource for all sport scientists trainers coaches physical therapists physicians psychologists educational officers and professionals working across the football codes Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
