Our Sacred Source Andrew Kneier, 2021-01-05 Life is not a cakewalk for any of us We each have our individual sufferings and challenges in life and we each must endure vital questions that have no certain answers Why are we here Where is God when we need him How do our lives matter in the long run Our science cannot help us with such questions but theology can And that s what this book has to offer This book s theology is based on an arresting theory about God Turning to modern physics it finds God in the origin of the universe and in the innermost foundations of the natural world The universe flowed from his nature but his nature was not perfect which is why we have an imperfect world where bad things happen to good people And yet we also find this God deep within us enabling us to confront our suffering with resilience and grace The evil in the world has power but we have power too the power from our inner God to hold steady against the slings and arrows of our misfortunes The theology presented here builds on the discoveries of particle physics and quantum mechanics about the foundational building blocks and forces in all of creation These reveal the abounding spirit and purposes of the Creator a spirit that empowers us and instills in us purposes we can embrace and foster It may seem we are essentially on our own as we navigate through life but in this book s theology God is always and everywhere with us and in us living faith He presents Emerson's synthesis of Kantian and Vedantic philosophies as the key to understanding his life and works from a new perspective forging a novel connection between Emerson's transcendental idealism and developments in contemporary analytic philosophy of religion In both cases post Kantian epistemology provides the impetus for a notion of faith as an active interpretive process that is not bound to religious truth claims Vedantic monism supplies an image for how one might understand this interpretive process in its larger metaphysical context This book provides us a vision of life as participation in a narrative greater than ourselves a narrative that may be spoken of in the language of various religious traditions but is not constrained to any one
