Missing An Urgent Call For The Church To Rescue Kids:

Missing Melissa J. MacDonald, 2014-12-15 They've been called the 4-14 window the largest unreached people group in the world. They live in your neighborhood. They speak your language. They even attend your church. They are the children between 4 and 14 years of age who unless they come to faith within the first decade and a half of their lives will likely never have a relationship with God. Drawing from her experience as a children's minister and her research on Millennials, Melissa J. MacDonald challenges readers to embrace the task of reaching this crucial generation with the gospel before it's too late. Melissa's style is fresh and engaging as she encourages parents, pastors, and church leaders with practical, biblically sound insight into capturing kids' hearts without dumbing down the truth. Melissa draws on mistakes she's made and lessons she's learned with transparency and humor, and you'll have a hard time not catching her contagious enthusiasm for sharing the love of Jesus with a missing generation. The daughter of a pastor and the oldest sister of three, Melissa J. MacDonald grew up doing ministry with her family. Melissa herself has been a children's pastor and missionary. Passionate about the church and about kids, she travels extensively speaking, training, coaching, and consulting. She currently serves as the national Children's Disciplemaking Specialist for the Christian and Missionary Alliance denomination. She's been to over 30 countries and seeks out the best ethnic food in every city she visits. The Zero Hour Calvin Fryar, 2005-08 The General Baptist repository, and Missionary observer [afterw.] The General Baptist magazine repository and Missionary observer [afterw.] The General Baptist magazine, 1884 Lost Destiny Alan Axelrod, 2015-05-19 A fresh look at the oldest son of the Kennedy clan who lost his life in one of the most daring and desperate missions of WWII The Living Church, 1967 The Child Catchers Kathryn Joyce, 2013-04-16 When Jessie Hawkins adopted daughter told her she had another mom back in Ethiopia, Jessie didn't at first know what to think. She'd wanted her adoption to be a great story about a child who needed a home and got one, and a family led by God to adopt. Instead, she felt like she'd done something wrong. Adoption has long been enmeshed in the politics of reproductive rights, pitched as a win-win compromise in the never-ending abortion debate. But as Kathryn Joyce makes clear in The Child Catchers, adoption has lately become even more entangled in the conservative Christian agenda. To tens of millions of evangelicals, adoption is a new front in the culture wars, a test of pro-life bona fides, a way for born-again Christians to reinvent compassionate conservatism on the global stage and a means to fulfill the Great Commission mandate to evangelize the nations. Influential leaders fervently promote a new orphan theology, urging followers to adopt en masse with little thought for the families these orphans may already have. Conservative evangelicals control much of that industry through an infrastructure of adoption agencies, ministries, political lobbying groups, and publicly supported crisis pregnancy centers which convince women not just to choose life but to choose adoption. Overseas conservative Christians preside over a spiraling boom-bust adoption market in countries where people are poor and regulations weak, and where hefty adoption fees provide lots of incentive to increase the supply of adoptable children, recruiting orphans from intact but vulnerable families The Child Catchers is a shocking exposé of what the adoption industry has become and how it got there told through deep investigative reporting and the heartbreaking stories of individuals who became collateral damage in a market driven by profit and now pulpit command Anyone who seeks to adopt of whatever faith or no faith and however well meaning is affected by the evangelical adoption movement whether they know it or not The movement has shaped the way we think about adoption the language we use to discuss it the places we seek to adopt from and the policies and laws that govern the process In The Child Catchers Kathryn Joyce reveals with great sensitivity and empathy why if we truly care for children we need to see more clearly
