Last Love Battle:

A THREE LOVE BATTLE Anika Meade, 2012-07-23 Many writers have interesting material and can come up with the most intense on edge and sometimes even hilarious novels that catch reader's attention Reading is a joy for some Perhaps it peeks the reader's curiosity to thoroughly read each unpredictable page while being blind to what the end entails Just as A THREE LOVE BATTLE has a mysterious blissful ending that some may find warming and Nurturing My second untitled book due for release in November of 2013 should be more exiting with an unexpected ending Anika Meade is a forty year old mother of three and resides in Charlotte NC While striving for the best life has to offer for her three children Anika has always had a dream of becoming a professional hair stylist and has even attended Beauty College but to become a writer who writes from her real life of experiences that she can share with readers proves to be a more rewarding experience The Last Love Pitambar Das, 2021-12-13 The Last Love is an epic battle between the innocent and the powerful A thirteen year old boy is left to himself when his mother is shot dead The powerful national and international agencies try to grab the research document the brainchild of his mother that could win the war and peace But where is it No one knows Sunny fights to guard the non-existent research document that holds the secret of his mother's dream Paradigm Lost? David Jablonsky, 1993 Sometime in the penultimate decade of the 20th century the United States and its allies won the cold war Once again in the current transition period the primary questions revolve around the management of power and America's role in global politics Once again there are the issues of change and continuity In terms of change the cold war set in train a blend of integrative and disintegrative forces and trends that are adding to the complex tensions of the current transition The integrative force that increasingly linked global economies in the cold war for instance also holds out the spectral potential of global depression or at the very least nations more susceptible to disintegrative actions as the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait demonstrated In a similar manner the advances in communications and transportation that have spread the results of medical and scientific discoveries around the world are countered by the malign transnational results of nuclear technology the drug trade terrorism AIDS and global warming Sub-Saharan Africa & U.S. National Interests Anthony D. Marley, 1998-06 Four articles include U S national interests in Sub Saharan Africa a military model for conflict resolution in Sub Saharan Africa phantom warriors disease as a threat to U S national security and military downsizing in the developing world process problems and possibilities Also includes a 24 page report U S Security Strategy for Sub Saharan Africa 1995 Parameters, 1997 Writing after War John Limon, 1994-07-07 In Writing After War John Limon develops a theory of the relationship of war in general to literature in general in order to make sense of American literary history in particular Applying the work of war theorists Carl von Clausewitz and Elaine Scarry John Limon argues that The Iliad inaugurates Western literature on the failure of war to be duel like to have a beautiful form War's failure is literature's justification American literary history is demarcated by wars as if literary epochs like the history of literature itself required bloodshed to commence But in chapters on periods of literary history from realism generally taken to be a product of the Civil War through modernism usually assumed to be a prediction or result of the Great War up to postmodernism which followed World War II and spanned Vietnam Limon argues that despite the looming presence of war in American history the techniques that define these periods are essentially ways of not writing war From James and Twain through Fitzgerald Faulkner and even Hemingway to Pynchon our national literary history is not hopelessly masculinist Limon argues Instead it arrives naturally at Bobbie Ann Mason and Maxine Hong Kingston Kingston brings the discussion full circle The Woman Warrior like The Iliad appears to condemn the fall from duel to war that is literature s endless opening

Paternalism Incorporated David Leverenz, 2004 Between the Civil War and World War I David Leverenz maintains the corporate transformation of American work created widespread desire for upward mobility along with widening class divisions In his view several significant narrative constructs notably the daddy s girl and the daddy s boy emerge at the intersection between paternalist practices and more democratic possibilities for self advancement From Mark Twain s Laura Hawkins in The Gilded Age to the protagonist of Theodore Dreiser s Sister Carrie and Willa Cather s Alexandra Bergson in O Pioneers Leverenz finds that the image of the daddy s girl constrains the emerging threat of the career woman even as it articulates the lure of upward mobility for women In surveying the figure of the daddy s boy Leverenz examines tensions between young men s desires for upward mobility and older men s desires for paternal control Paternalism Incorporated also addresses yearnings for individualism and paternalism in various critiques of the emerging corporation Another chapter links honor and shaming to race in the philanthropic practices of Andrew Carnegie and John D Rockefeller framed with narratives by William Dean Howells Booker T Washington and Jane Addams After showing how a daddy s girl becomes a paternalist in Henry James s The Golden Bowl Leverenz considers F Scott Fitzgerald s Tender is the Night as paternalism s elegy contrasted with the Shirley Temple film The Little Colonel Tender is the Night F. Scott Fitzgerald, 2024-06-25 On the pleasant shore of the French Riviera about half way between Marseilles and the Italian border stands a large proud rosecolored hotel Deferential palms cool its flushed facade and before it stretches a short dazzling beach Lately it has become a summer resort of notable and fashionable people a decade ago it was almost deserted after its English clientele went north in April Now many bungalows cluster near it but when this story begins only the cupolas of a dozen old villas rotted like water lilies among the massed pines between Gasse s Hotel des étrangers and Cannes five miles away The hotel and its bright tan prayer rug of a beach were one In the early morning the distant image of Cannes the pink and cream of old fortifications the purple Alps that bounded Italy were cast across the water and lay quavering in the ripples and rings sent up by sea plants through the clear shallows Before eight a man came down to the beach in a blue bathrobe and with much preliminary application to his person of the chilly water and much grunting and loud breathing floundered a minute in the sea When he had gone beach and bay were quiet for an hour Merchantmen crawled westward on the horizon bus boys shouted in the hotel court the dew dried upon the pines In another hour the horns of motors began to blow down from the winding road along the low range of the Maures which separates the littoral from true Proven al France A mile from the sea where pines give way to dusty poplars is an isolated railroad stop whence one June morning in 1925 a victoria brought a woman and her daughter down to Gausse s Hotel The mother s face was of a fading prettiness that would soon be patted with broken veins her expression was both

Scott Fitzgerald's Sentimental Identities Christian K. Messenger,2015-01-15 Tender Is the Night and F Scott Fitzgerald s Sentimental Identities is a major examination of Fitzgerald s 1934 masterpiece as the clearest exemplar of Fitzgerald s sentimentalism a mode that shaped his distinctive blend of romance and realism throughout his career 1916 Keith Jeffery,2016-01-26 So much of the literature on the First World War centers on the trench warfare of the Western Front and these were essential battlegrounds But the war was in fact truly a global conflict and by focusing on a sequence of events in 1916 across many continents historian Keith Jeffery s magisterial work casts new light on the Great War Starting in January with the end of the catastrophic Gallipoli campaign Jeffery recounts the massive struggle for Verdun over February and March the Easter Rising in Ireland in April dramatic events in Russia in June on the eastern front the familiar story of the war in East Africa where some 200 000 Africans may have died and the November U S presidential race in which Woodrow Wilson was re elected on a platform of keeping the United States out of the war a position he reversed within five months Incorporating the stories of civilians in all countries both participants in and victims of the war 1916 A Global History is a major addition to the literature and the Great War by a historian at the height of his powers Sites of Memory, Sites of Mourning Jay Winter,2014-05-15 Jay Winter s powerful study of the collective remembrance of the Great War offers a major reassessment of one of the critical episodes in the cultural history of the twentieth century Dr Winter looks anew at the culture of commemoration and the ways in which communities endeavoured to find collective solace after 1918 Taking issue with the prevailing modernist interpretation of the European reaction to the appalling events of 1914 18 Dr Winter instead argues that what characterised that reaction was rather the attempt to interpret the Great War within traditional frames of reference Tensions arose inevitably Sites of Memory Sites of Mourning is a profound and moving book of seminal importance for the attempt to understand the course of European history during the first half of the twentieth century The Complete
