BBC London Calling ,1981 London Calling ,1981 Prescription and Tradition in Language Ingrid Tieken-Boon van Ostade, Carol Percy, 2016-11-14 This book contextualises case studies across a wide variety of languages and cultures crystallising key interrelationships between linguistic standardisation and prescriptivism and between ideas and practices It focuses on different traditions of standardisation and prescription throughout the world and addresses questions such as how nationalistic idealisations of traditional language persist or shift amid language change linguistic variation and multilingualism The volume explores issues of standardisation and the sociolinguistic phenomenon of prescription as a formative influence on the notional standard language as well as the interconnections between these in a wide range of geographical contexts It balances the otherwise strong emphasis on English in English language publications on prescriptivism and breaks new ground with its multilingual approach across languages and nations The book will appeal to scholars working within different linguistic traditions interested in questions relating to all aspects of standardisation and prescriptivism Focus On: 100 Most Popular English Emigrants to the United States Wikipedia contributors,

Standardising English Linda Pillière, Wilfrid Andrieu, Valérie Kerfelec, Diana Lewis, 2018-03-15 This path breaking study of the standardisation of English goes well beyond the traditional prescriptivism versus descriptivism debate It argues that the way norms are established and enforced is the result of a complex network of social factors and cannot be explained simply by appeals to power and hegemony It brings together insights from leading researchers to re centre the discussion on linguistic communities and language users It examines the philosophy underlying the urge to standardise language and takes a closer look at both well known and lesser known historical dictionaries grammars and usage guides demonstrating that they cannot be simply labelled as prescriptivist Drawing on rich empirical data and case studies it shows how the norm continues to function in society influencing and affecting language users even today Racism and English Football

Homelessness Robert Hagan, Anya Ahmed, 2025-03-19 Shelter is a basic human requirement yet housing in the UK has increasingly been perceived as an asset rather than the secure base everyone requires for their basic physical and mental health needs and well being. This book examines how all types of housing have become precarious for many service users with whom social workers will engage and makes some suggestions regarding action and best practice. Showing how people become homeless and the difficulties finding a way out of this the housing options for specific populations including care leavers those with disabilities families and older people will be examined. All this will be framed in the context of social work practice building practitioner knowledge and confidence around an area that affects everyone but the significance of which is sometimes underexamined in holistic assessments. Packed with reflective examples and case studies each chapter also includes a tuning in exercise to help prepare the reader for what the chapter will tackle with concluding thoughts on these exercises at the chapter end. This book is suitable for both undergraduate and postgraduate social work students as they begin to think of more specialised areas of work in their second or subsequent years as well as social work practitioners who will be increasingly aware of the pressures of housing costs on those with whom they work. Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement ,1927      Focus On: 100 Most Popular 21st-century English Actresses Wikipedia contributors,
