Life Sciences Trial Kzn Paper 2014:

The Work of Repair Thomas Cousins, 2023-06-06 In the timber plantations in northeastern South Africa laborers work long hours among tall swaying lines of eucalypts on land once theirs In 2008 at the height of the HIV AIDS crisis timber corporations distributed hot cooked meals as a nutrition intervention to bolster falling productivity and profits But life and sustenance are about much more than calories and machinic bodies What is at stake is the nurturing of capacity across all domains of life physical relational cosmological in the form of amandla An Nguni word meaning power strength or capacity amandla organizes ordinary concerns with one's abilities to earn a wage to strengthen one's body and to take care of others it describes the potency of medicines and sexual vitality and it captures a history of anti colonial and anti apartheid struggle for freedom The ordinary actions coordinated by and directed at amandla do not obscure the wounding effects of plantation labor or the long history of racial oppression but rather form the basis of what the Algerian artist Kader Attia calls repair In this captivating ethnography Cousins examines how amandla as the primary material of the work of repair anchors ordinary scenes of living and working in and around the plantations As a space of exploitation that enables the global paper and packaging industry to extract labor power the plantation depends on the availability of creative action in ordinary life to capitalize on bodily capacity The Work of Repair is a fine grained exploration of the relationships between laborers in the timber plantations of KwaZulu Natal and the historical decompositions and reinventions of the milieu of those livelihoods and lives Offering a fresh approach to the existential ethical and political stakes of ethnography from and of late liberal South Africa the book attends to urgent questions of postapartheid life the fate of employment the role of the state in providing welfare and access to treatment the regulation of popular curatives the queering of kinship and the future of custom and its territories Through detailed descriptions Cousins explicates the important and fragile techniques that constitute the work of repair the effort to augment one's capacity in a way that draws on acknowledges and reimagines the wounds of history keeping open the possibility of a future through and with others Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combated during the democratic era in South African universities

African Political Systems Revisited Aleksandar Bošković, Günther Schlee, 2022-04-08 Reexamining a classical work of social anthropology African Political Systems 1940 edited by Fortes and Evans Pritchard this book looks at the colonial and academic context from which the work arose as well as its reception and its subject matter and looks at how the work can help with analysis of current politics in Africa This book critically reflects upon the history of anthropology It also contributes to a political anthropology which is aware of its antecedents self reflexive as a discipline conscious of pitfalls and biases and able to locate itself in its academic social and political environment

Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi,Rachel T. Lebese,2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research Food Security and Islamic Ethics Ray Jureidini, Said F. The Critique of Bioethical Principlism in Contrast to an African Approach to Bioethics Jude Thaddaeus Buyondo, 2024-08-16 Though some argue that bioethics in the Black African world is simply a reflection of the Western approach to bioethics this work suggests otherwise While the Western approach bioethical principlism claims to offer an absolute approach to bioethics in a universalized common morality this book argues that bioethical principlism can be complemented with African approaches to bioethics Western principlism as primarily presented by Thomas L Beauchamp and James F Childress can hardly be incarnated in the African context of bioethical problems unless it is complemented by a contextual normative understanding of African social realities realities that themselves must be enriched by bioethical principlism Without claiming to offer the last word on intercultural bioethics or disputing which bioethical approaches deserve prioritization the work interactively relies on ordinary moral experiences that are practically visible in lived social realities as well as the community realities surrounding Africans south of the Sahara Prescriptively in order to not simply promote life but to do so fully the African ethical system supports an integral community life by continuously promoting the norm of solidarity continued vitality and the hierarchization of life within the corporate community which the individual must not blindly follow but responsibly interact with without her identity freedom and conscience being crushed Farmer's
