Miss Donohue And Other Stories:

News and the Human Interest Story Helen MacGill Hughes, 1981 In this account of the growth of newspapers in modern industrial society Helen Hughes traces the development of a mass audience through analysis of the origins of the human interest story in the popular ballads of an earlier day She shows how such commonly found interests as a taste for news of the town ordinary gossip and moving or gripping tales with a legendary or mythic quality have reflected the tastes of ordinary folk from the days of illiterate audiences to the present She explains how these interests ultimately were combined with practical economic and political information to create the substance and demand for a popular press In describing the rise and fall of newspaper empires each with their special readership attractions Dr Hughes shows how technological innovation and idiosyncratic creativity were used by owners to capture and hold a reading audience Once this audience developed it could be fed a variety of messages beamed at reinforcing and maintaining both general and specific publics as well as a view of the world consonant with that of the publisher and major advertisers Hughes offers a persuasive argument for the continuing viability of this method for combined social control instruction and amusement captured by the association of news and the human interest story

The Story of an East-side Family Lillian Williams Betts, 1903 All-story Magazine, 1916 The Booklist, 1918 Sensationalism and the New York Press John D. Stevens, 1991 After Etan

Lisa R. Cohen, 2025-05-01 In After Etan author Lisa Cohen draws on hundreds of interviews and nearly twenty years of research including access to the personal files of the Patz family to reveal for the first time the entire dramatic tale of Etan's disappearance A masterful combination of deep human interest and detailed criminal investigation into a parent's worst nightmare Kirkus Reviews Starred On the morning of May 25 1979 six year old Etan Patz left his apartment to go to his school bus stop It was the first time he had ever walked the two short blocks on his own But he never made it to school that day He vanished somewhere between his home and the bus stop and was never seen again The search for Etan quickly consumed the downtown Manhattan neighborhood where his family lived Soon afterward Missing posters with Etan's smiling face blanketed the city followed by media coverage that turned Etan's disappearance into a national story one that would change our cultural landscape forever Thirty years later in Etan's honor May 25 is recognized as National Missing Children's

Day But despite the overwhelming publicity his case received the public knows only a fraction of what happened That s because the story of Etan Patz is more than a heartbreaking mystery It is also the story of the men women and children who were touched by his life in the months and years after he vanished It s the story of the agonies and triumphs of the Patz family as well as the story of the extraordinary twists and turns of federal prosecutor Stuart GraBois s relentless pursuit of his prime suspect From GraBois s creative outside the box tactics to the veteran cop who made his first pedophile bust on a dark Times Square rooftop to the FBI rookie who cut her teeth chasing the case through the dark recesses of a child molester s mind this is the story of all the heroic investigators who to this day continue to seek justice for Etan Missing Nicole

Morris,2024-09-04 Missing without a trace into thin air In Missing Nicole Morris best selling author of Vanished and founder of the Australian Missing Persons Register delves into the chilling world of long term missing persons cases With over 55 000 disappearances annually in Australia each story is a heart wrenching account of unanswered questions and shattered lives From a West Australian man entangled in the dangers of online dating to an Adelaide father possibly linked to Australia s most notorious serial killings Morris uncovers haunting tales of those who vanished without a trace Three mothers leaving behind bewildered children a young hitchhiker lost on a desolate Queensland highway and two Sydney men who lost their way all woven into the fabric of inexplicable disappearances The narrative spans decades from the 1980s to present day mysteries including the puzzling case of a gentle Greenpeace worker vanishing amidst inner city Melbourne the suspicious disappearance of a 21 year old and the grim discovery of scattered remains in Queensland unravelling a harrowing tale of violence and tragedy And then there is the perplexing case of a man who went missing over and over again Missing sheds light on the untold stories of those who vanished leaving behind a void of unanswered questions and enduring pain Nicole Morris brings attention to the cold cases from families of missing persons raising awareness and hopefully uncovering new leads for desperate families searching for the truth Dark Chapter: Hard-hitting crime fiction based on a true story knows theatre inside and out so the story has that authentic backstage feel It will remind you of those wonderful old films they don't make anymore If Eiseman didn't just invent Harrison Hunt the charmingly egocentric stage director you'd swear he'd been sleuthing around for years A GRIPPING AND EXCITING WHODUNIT from first page to last Author Paul Eiseman weaves an intricate tapestry of suspects red herrings clues and mystery that will keep you guessing until the last possible moment IF YOU'RE UP ON SHOW BIZ TRIVIA you might find yourself catching the killer Then again even with the clues right before your eyes you'll probably be as surprised as I was when everything came clear in the tense final pages I COULD NOT PUT THIS BOOK DOWN The plot is always turning The added bonus of getting a behind-the-scenes view of the theatre world is a delight A DELIGHT TO READ The characters are fun and well defined and there is a lighthearted component to the work
