Missouri Schools ,1949     A Score Card and Standards for the Records and Reports of City School Systems George Drayton Strayer,Nickolaus Louis Engelhardt,1923     Missouri School Journal ,1896     Organizational Report Cards William T. Gormley Jr.,David L. Weimer,1999-03 In recent years consumers professional organizations government officials and third party payers have become increasingly concerned about how to assess the quality of the services provided by organizations in both the private and the public sectors One new approach is the organizational report card which compares the performance of organizations such as public schools colleges hospitals and HMOs This book offers the first comprehensive study of such instruments It discusses the circumstances under which they are desirable alternatives to other policy instruments such as regulation how they should be designed who is likely to use them and for what purpose and what role if any government should have in their creation Informed by cases drawn from education health and other policy areas this book develops a conceptual framework for analyzing these issues It explores the tradeoffs in measuring performance the methods of communicating results effectively to mass and elite audiences and the ways in which organizations respond to the data gathered     The Civics Report Card Lee F. Anderson,1990 This report summarizes findings from two national surveys of U S civics achievement conducted by the National Assessment of Educational Progress Part 1 reports on a trend assessment of approximately 56 000 students at ages 13 and 17 carried out during the 1975 76 1981 82 and 1987 88 school years Chapter 1 summarizes national trends trends for demographic subpopulations trends in students ability to define democracy and trends in students ability to identify the value of multiple newspaper publishers Part 2 reports on patterns of achievement of fourth eighth and twelfth grade students in 1988 Chapter 2 summarizes the levels of civics proficiency across the grades Chapter 3 compares civics proficiency across subpopulations defined by gender race ethnicity region and other characteristics Chapter 4 explores students performance in specific content areas such as democratic principles and the purpose of government political processes and rights responsibilities and the law Chapter 5 describes the amount of instruction students reported receiving in civics while chapter 6 discusses the topics studied and the instructional approaches used in these classes Appendices contain procedural information and tables of statistical data that supplement the information in the text JB     Schoolhouse Shams Peter Downs,2013 Written by a parent and school board member who first embraced many of the ideas of the modern school reform movement Schoolhouse Shams lays bare much of the mythology and misinformation that underpin many of the failed school reform policies of the last decade Many of the top strategies of the highly publicized school reform movement already have been tried out in St Louis with disastrous results Along with demonstrating the failure of school reform prescriptions to improve education the experience of St Louis demonstrates that the ideological premise of the reform movement that a focus on providing opportunities for private profit taking will necessarily improve schools is both wrong and conflicts with the ideals of democracy accountability and justice

Trent,James D. Anderson,2021-01-18 The question of why we need to think about how we research race demands a conceptualization of race that captures both its social construction and its temporal evolution We need both an understanding of race and clarity about how we talk about it in our design and conduct of research and in how we interpret and apply it in our findings As a field we can use research on race and racism in education to help construct social change Our purpose with this volume is to underscore the persistence of the discriminatory actions processes and the normalization of the use of race and class conditions to justify the existing and growing disparity between the quality of life and opportunity for middle class and more affluent Whites and that for people of color and people of color who live in poverty As editors of this volume we wonder what more we could learn and understand about the process and condition of race if we dare to ask bold questions about race and racism and commit to methods and analyses that respect the experiences and knowledges of our research participants and partners      State and County School Administration Ellwood P.
