illustrated 1922 edition Excerpt the muse in the door I do not know your name Nor your fate You come as you came before You are late But you and mine are the same Submitted to me once more You carry the sign You are late But mine You are mine as you were before For you and mine are the same You are lame You pause in the door With desire and danger and doubt You detach from the wind without You are mine as you were before You are slow for pity and pride Ah you are lame but mine You carry the sign The vultures in your side You are he whom the beaks defile You are faint from the walls you broke You smile You are bright and bereft You are heavy with theft There is fire in your cloak Master of stealth You are he Mine to compel or refuse And you are released to me As Barabbas was loosed to the Jews poet to poet To my Singing Brother C G O N Since you are with me now my Bird I sing alone no more We go with many a silver word Where we have wept before We go with many a silver sound Where once we went so still We take the forest for a hound And chase the bounding hill We chase the bee where honey drips We chase the chanting morn We put the forest to our lips And blow it like a horn We shake the forest like a flag Like banners burning red Our words are running with the stag With leaves the wind has sped Our words are running with the hare The hunters never find Whose feet are like the purple air That leaves the pack behind But ah no hunter ever heard Such cries as we let out Since you are with me now my Bird With echoes leagued about The echoes all take hands and dance When you set up your song The hairy hidens peep and prance And love and listen long The hairy hidens weep their
