Strategic planning is a process that involves setting a vision, defining strategic goals, and developing a plan of action to achieve those goals. It is a systematic process that involves analyzing the organization's internal and external environments, identifying opportunities and threats, and developing a plan of action to achieve the organization's vision and mission. Strategic planning is a continuous process that involves monitoring and evaluating the organization's performance and making adjustments as needed. It is a key component of effective management and is essential for the long-term success of any organization.

The differences in the way that you conceptualized the pairing (highlighting just one characteristic instead of many) is an indication of the way you and your partner think about love.

Other important areas include education for the poorest and different languages and working with religious leaders. The strategy – though still evolving – and principles do have space for all sorts of leading government but expanded and broader engagement of religious and civil society leaders to ensure that the government is not the only actor in the room.
