Mass Failure in Public Examinations Ayorinde Dada,1987 The National Bibliography of Nigeria ,1988

DISTORTED LEGACY Henry M'ule Musenge,2021-03-31 Under mounting pressure including food riots and an attempted coup President Jerome Jumbe JJ of Zambia revokes the repressive and dreaded one party state system and re introduces multiparty elections which usher in the charismatic and diminutive Joseph Francis Chaluma JFC JFC embarks on liberalisation of the country s shuttered economy Like JJ before him JFC implements subjective constitutional reforms However JFC commits three cardinal sins arresting the founding father of the nation attempting a divisive third term bid and picking an unlikely successor Luka Mwambwa who against all odds sells him down the river Isolated and vulnerable JFC s eyes dilated and he certainly saw more light All the first three Republican Presidents missed key points he quipped mourned and regretted it all A Global Perspective on Women in Leadership and Work-Family Integration Kerri

Cissna-Heath,Margaret J. Weber,2020-01-17 There are countless books on the market that address the personal challenges and institutional barriers that ambitious female leaders face in the United States This volume furthers the conversation by comparing the experiences of women in leadership with regards to work life balance from eight different countries around the globe Collecting stories from women in the United States Costa Rica India Iran Nigeria Norway Sri Lanka and Uganda this volume provides insights into the issues women face globally regarding leadership and work family integration It offers a variety of perspectives from around the world and highlights a variety of cultural norms regarding work and family integration

National Bibliography of Nigeria ,1986 Issues for 1973 include section Nigerian periodicals continuing the library s Nigerian periodicals 1950 55 Daily Graphic Henry Ofori,1969-07-22 Singapore Jason Lim,Terence Lee,2016-05-26 On 9 August 2015 Singapore celebrated its 50th year of national independence a milestone for the nation as it has overcome major economic social cultural and political challenges in a short period of time Whilst this was a celebratory event to acknowledge the role of the People s Action Party PAP government it was also marked by national remembrance as founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew died in March 2015 This book critically reflects on Singapore s 50 years of independence Contributors interrogate a selected range of topics on Singapore s history culture and society including the constitution education religion and race and thereby facilitate a better understanding of its shared national past Central to this book is an examination of how Singaporeans have learnt to adapt and change through PAP government policies since independence in 1965 All chapters begin their histories from that point in time and each contribution focuses either on an area that has been neglected in Singapore s modern history or offer new perspectives on the past Using a multi disciplinary approach it presents an independent and critical take on Singapore s post 1965 history A valuable assessment to students and researchers alike Singapore Negotiating State and Society 1965 2015 is of interest to specialists in Southeast Asian history and politics God and Man in Early Israel J. W. D. Smith,2024-12-06 First published in 1956 God and Man in Early

Israel deals with Old Testament history from Abraham to Solomon in the light of modern archaeological research and biblical scholarship and in terms of the Christian belief in divine revelation The book is divided into three parts God and Man in the stories of the Patriarchs God and Man in the making of a Nation and God and Man in the founding of a Kingdom Biblical references are given throughout the book God and Man in Early Israel is intended as a companion to the study of the Bible not as a substitute for it It will be a fascinating read for students and researchers of religion history and classics Memoirs of Innocence & Experience Innocent (Hondo) Chirawu, 2011-01-20 I was born Innocent Murambiwa Hondo on 11 January 1961 in Chinyemba Village Glendale Mazoe District of the then Rhodesia I had an official change of my maternal surname Hondo to my paternal surname Chirawu and acquired the middle name Blessed in 1983 Since my childhood I have always aspired to utilise every opportunity that helps me help my fellowman best I was brought up in colonial Rhodesia which was dominated by divide and rule politics in favour of the white minority population As a result the black child s school was far inferior compared to his white counterpart s There was also a deliberate public policy to provide the average black child with an education only adequate for him to perform a subordinate role to his white master and only 12% of the black children were expected to proceed to secondary education These would form the elite part of the society taking up occupations like nurses teachers clerks agricultural extension officers and others I was very fortunate to fall into the category of the elite group who made it through the bottleneck system into secondary education Salvation Army s Howard Secondary School which was a syndicate examination centre for The University of Cambridge whereby GCE O Level examinations were set and marked at that reputable university I sat for those Exams in November December 1978 and passed with grades B and C in 8 subjects including Maths Science and English thus obtaining a University of Cambridge GCE certificate in First Division I later on proceeded to a private institution Ranche House College where I did my English and Sociology at Advanced level My first job after school was working as a bank clerk for Standard Chartered Bank from May 1980 to Sept 1981 I then intercalated from banking to study for my Diploma in Theology at the International Bible Training Centre Lagos in 1982 resumed banking for a stint then did my initial teacher training from 1984 to 1987 I then taught Woodwork RE and English in Zimbabwean secondary schools for 11 years during which period I rose through the ranks of being an ordinary class teacher head of department Religious Education English and deputy head teacher While in full time teaching I managed to study for a degree in educational administration planning and policy studies as well as a part one in BA Media studies through Zimbabwe Open University the latter which was interrupted by socio politico economic problems in Zimbabwe that time I was doing all those study programmes paying the fees from my salary and without a penny of assistance from the government In Zimbabwe switching from being a teacher to being a journalist for the independent press was and still is like jumping from the frying pan into the fire In April 1999 I then joined the Daily News the then Zimbabwe s once most popular and best seller tabloid later banned and defunct from 2003 2010 where I served as a subeditor cum proofreader until the time I migrated to England in December 2001 By the time I left Zimbabwe there was every sign that the future of my colleagues our newspaper and I was very gloom After the bombings of our offices and printing press our then editor in chief Geoff Nyarota announced that due to the political situation and the hostility that time we were experiencing he could not guarantee our safety anymore So I had no choice but sell my family property buy a ticket flew into self exile in England and I have always lived here since then Later on I called my family over to join my stay in the country My grandmother my childhood mentor The Mirror E.N.O.
