Assessment In The Mathematics Classroom: Yearbook 2011, Association Of Mathematics Educators Berinderjeet Kaur, Khoon Yoong Wong, 2011-05-16 The third in the series of yearbooks by the Association of Mathematics Educators in Singapore Assessment in the Mathematics Classroom is unique as it addresses a focused theme on mathematics education The objective is to encourage teachers and researchers to include assessment of non cognitive attributes and to use techniques in addition to paper and pencil tests that focus on typical problems Several renowned international researchers in the field have published their work in the book The thirteen chapters of the book illustrate evidence based practices that school teachers and researchers can experiment in their lessons to bring about meaningful learning outcomes A recurring theme in most chapters is the widely circulated notions of formative assessment and assessment for learning The book makes a significant contribution towards assessment in mathematics It is a good resource for research students and a must read mathematics educators

Psychological Studies in the Teaching, Learning and Assessment of Mathematics Yiming Cao, Zsolt Lavicza , Shuhua An, Lianchun Dong, 2024-05-31 There is no doubt that the onset of a new decade has brought high expectations of academic progress for scholars especially for researchers in mathematics education The International Group for the Psychology of Mathematics Education was born in 1976 which focused on the international exchange of knowledge in the psychology of mathematics education the promotion of interdisciplinary research with psychologists mathematicians and mathematics teachers and the development of the psychological aspects of teaching and learning mathematics and its implications

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners

Learning Targets Connie M. Moss, Susan M. Brookhart, 2012-07-02 In Learning Targets Connie M Moss and Susan M Brookhart contend that improving student learning and achievement happens in the immediacy of an individual lesson what they call today's lesson or it doesn't happen at all The key to making today's lesson meaningful Learning targets Written from students point of view a learning target describes a lesson sized chunk of information and skills that students will come to know deeply Each lesson's learning target connects to the next lesson's target enabling students to master a coherent series of challenges that ultimately lead to important curricular standards Drawing from the authors extensive research and professional learning partnerships with classrooms schools and school districts this practical book Situates learning targets in a theory of action that students teachers principals and central office administrators can use to unify their efforts to raise student achievement and create a culture of evidence based results oriented practice Provides strategies for designing learning targets that promote higher order thinking and foster student goal setting self assessment and self regulation Explains how to design a strong performance of understanding an activity that produces evidence of students progress toward the learning target Shows how to use learning targets to guide summative assessment and grading Learning Targets also includes reproducible planning forms a classroom walk through guide a lesson planning process guide and guides to teacher and student self assessment What students are actually doing during today's lesson is both the source of and the yardstick for school improvement efforts By applying the insights in this book to your own work you can improve your teaching expertise and dramatically empower all students as stakeholders in their own learning

Handbook of Response to

Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention

Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step
