How to write a characterization Characters can be presented in two ways: a) direct (explicit) characterization: the narrator or a character tells the reader what sort of person a character is b) indirect (implicit) characterization: the reader has to draw conclusions about what the character is like by what the character says or does Step 1

Make a grid and note down: •

what the narrator or other characters say about the character you are dealing with

what the character says about him- or herself

the character's outward appearance (e.g. what he or she looks like)

the character's behaviour (e.g. what he or she says, thinks or does)

add the lines from the text so that you can find the passages later more easily Step 2

From your notes •

draw conclusions about the character (e.g. what kind of person is he or she?) from what he or she says, thinks or does find appropriate adjectives
