The first principle is the need to center place and rurality as essential factors that affect education for all educators students and families who live work and attend schools in rural communities Second educators must humanize multilingual students their families and their cultures in ways that go beyond merely acknowledging their presence they must deeply see and understand the lives and hi stories of the multilingual students and families that they serve in their rural schools Finally the third principle involves identifying multilingual resources for ML students and their families Given the persistent inequities in access to resources and opportunities that rural ML students and families face this last principle requires careful planning networking and advocating in ways that can truly effectuate change Contributors are Jioanna Carjuzaa Maria R Coady Paula Golombek Shuzhan Li Kristin Kline Liu Nidza V Marichal Charity Funfe Tatah Mentan Kym O Donnell Stephanie Oudghiri Darrell Peterson Sonja Phillips Jenelle Reeves and Yi Chen Wu Resources in Education ,2001
