Falling Angels Barbara Gowdy:

Falling Angels Barbara Gowdy, 1991 This is Our Writing T. F. Rigelhof, 2000 Punctuate his title as you like but T F Rigelhof considers This is Our Writing a declaration an enquiry and an exclamation As a writer of half a dozen a reviewer of dozens upon dozens and as a reader of a multitude more books Terry Rigelhof knows much about writing in Canada In these eleven essays he asks what is best in what has been written by Canadians in the twentieth century He examines selected works of some writers whose accomplishments need serious revaluation What are the real achievements of Robertson Davies Carole Corbeil Mavis Gallant Mordecai Richler Hugh Hood Leonard Cohen and George Grant Rigelhof comes up with a list that will surprise some and dismay others This is a book for readers who have always known in their heart of hearts that Robertson Davies was an egregious windbag and that underneath the inspired silliness of their carefully contrived and managed public images Mordecai Richler and Leonard Cohen have produced three of the most intelligent novels we have In a sequence of interlocking personal essays Rigelhof explores living a writerly life in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The text is fortified by a dozen photographs all but one previously unpublished by Gabor Szilasi one of Canada's greatest active documentary photographers Ripostes Philip Marchand, 1998 Ripostes is a collection of essays on some salient features of the Canadian literary landscape a number of which were first published in the Toronto Star many of which appear in these pages for the first time Included are essays on Atwood Findley Ondaatje and Margaret Laurence as well as thematic explorations of Canadian literature such as an account of the demise of the Survival school of Canadian writing a look at the recent history of the Writers Union of Canada an examination of the role of fathers in Canadian fiction a study of the strange attraction of many of our writers to the occult and so on The tone is considered and critical rather than celebratory although the essays are respectful of the genuine achievements of Canadian literature in the past few decades They try to clear the air as it were of boosterism political correctness and other attitudes which hinder the appreciation and reception of good writing This is an honest re appraisal of Canadian literature undertaken at a time when we need no longer be overcome with relief and euphoria over the fact that some of our authors are now world famous or at least world famous in Hoboken New Jersey

When Words Deny the World Stephen Henighan, 2002 It's the liveliest most cogently argued most provocative and most infuriatingly self satisfied work of literary criticism to be published in this country in at least the last decade Making Babies Sandra Sabatini, 2006-01-01 Although the infant has been a consistent figure in literature and for many people a significant figure in personal life there's been little attention focused on infants or on their place in Canadian fiction until now In this book Sandra Sabatini examines Canadian fiction to trace the ideological charge behind the represented infant Examining writers from L M Montgomery and Frederick Philip Grove to Thomas King and Terry Griggs Sabatini compares women's writing about babies with the way infants appear in texts by men over the course of a century She discovers a range of changing attitudes toward babies After being seen as a source of financial burden social shame or sentimental fantasy infants have increasingly become a source of value and meaning The book challenges the perception of babies as passive objects of care and argues for a reading of the infant as a subject in itself It also reflects upon how the representations of infancy in Canadian literature offer an intriguing portrait of how we imagine ourselves The Romantic Barbara Gowdy, 2025-06-25 From the author of The White Bone a piercing novel of passionate attachment and of the fear and freedom of letting go Louise Kirk learns about love and loss at an early age When she is nine years old her former beauty queen mother disappears leaving a note that reads only and incorrectly Louise knows how to work the washing machine Soon after the Richters and their adopted son Abel move in across the street Louise's immediate devotion to the exotic motherly Mrs Richter is quickly transferred to her nature loving precociously intelligent son From this childhood friendship evolves a love that will bind Louise and Abel forever Though Abel moves away Louise's attachment becomes ever more fixed as she grows up Separations are followed by reunions but with every turn of their fractured relationship Louise discovers that Abel cannot love her as fiercely and exclusively as she loves him Only when she faces another great loss is Louise finally forced to confront the costs of abandoning herself to another Skillfully interweaving the stories of Louise and Abel at different ages Barbara Gowdy produces a powerful exploration of love's many incarnations a motherless daughter who yearns to be adopted a husband eternally linked to a wife who has left him a girl bewitched by the boy next door a woman who refuses to let go of a magnetic elusive man Haunting and profound The Romantic is a story about love in all its exquisite variations Little Sister: A Novel Barbara Gowdy, 2017-05-23 A New York Times Book Review Editor's Choice One of Kirkus Reviews Best Books of 2017 A supernatural domestic thriller and a crackling tour de force The New York Times Thunderstorms are rolling across the summer sky Every time one breaks Rose Bowan loses consciousness and has vivid realistic dreams about being in another woman's body Is Rose merely dreaming Or is she in fact inhabiting a stranger Disturbed yet entranced she sets out to discover what is happening to her leaving the cocoon of her family's small repertory cinema for the larger upended world of someone wildly different from herself Meanwhile her mother is in the early stages of dementia and has begun to speak for the first time in decades about another haunting presence Rose's younger sister In Little Sister one woman fights to help someone she has never met and to come to terms with a death for which she always felt responsible With the elegant prose and groundbreaking imagination that have earned her international acclaim Barbara Gowdy explores the astonishing power of empathy the question of where we end and others begin and the fierce bonds of motherhood and sisterhood Bringing Peace Home Karen Warren, Duane L. Cady, 1996 This collection of works is ambitious well documented thoroughly though not turgidly referenced and comprehensively indexed It is deeply disturbing and deeply engaging Australian Feminist Studies Contributors discuss the subtle and complex relationships between various notions of feminism and peace Feminist peace issues are explored along a wide spectrum of personal and political issues from the personal violations of rape incest and domestic abuse to the violence of racism sexism economic exploitation war and genocide The White Bone Barbara

Margaret Atwood and the Female Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams, 2017-03-02 Examining Margaret Atwood's work in the context of the complex history of the Bildungsroman Ellen McWilliams explores how the genre has been appropriated by women writers in the second half of the twentieth century She demonstrates that Atwood's early work her own coming of age fiction including unpublished works as well as The Edible Woman Surfacing and Lady Oracle both engages with and works against the paradigms of identity which are traditionally associated with the genre Making extensive use of unpublished manuscripts in the Atwood Collection at the University of Toronto McWilliams uncovers influences that shaped Atwood's fashioning of identity in her early novels paying particular attention to Atwood's preoccupation with survival as a key symbol of Canadian literature culture and identity She also considers the genre's afterlife on display in Cat's Eye The Robber Bride Alias Grace The Blind Assassin and Moral Disorder in which the formulations of selfhood and identity in Atwood's early fiction are revisited and developed Atwood emerges as a writer who self consciously invokes and then undercuts the traditions of the Bildungsroman a turn that may be read as a means of at once interrogating and perpetuating the form McWilliams's book furthers our understanding of subjectivity in Atwood's fiction and contributes to ongoing conversations about the role gender and cultural contexts play in reframing generic boundaries Gossips, Gorgons and Crones Jane Caputi, 1993-10 Gossips, Gorgons, Crones is the first comprehensive analysis of nuclear age culture and the accompanying return of female Powers Based in feminist pre-patriarchal and Native American philosophies this book provides a biting critique of patriarchal practices myths and values including family values The Broadview Introduction to Literature: Concise Edition Lisa Chalykoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2014-12-11 Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts In each genre the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes and each genre is prefaced by a substantial introduction Pedagogically current and uncommon in its
