Family Reunion Program:

Prison Sex Christopher Hensley, 2002 Sex in prison remains a taboo subject This comprehensive volume explores prison sex presenting original research on consensual and nonconsensual intercourse as well as the effects of conjugal visitation policies and HIV AIDS management

Family Reunion Program Resource Book Detroit 300, Inc, 2000* The Female Offender--1979-80 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice, 1981

Strangers to Neighbours Shauna Labman, Geoffrey Cameron, 2020-09-23 As a leading country in global refugee resettlement Canada operates a unique program that allows private groups and individuals to sponsor refugees This innovative approach has received growing international attention but there remains a need for a more expansive understanding of the sponsorship framework and its potential implications within Canada and across the world Strangers to Neighbours explains the origins and development of refugee sponsorship paying particular attention to the unintended consequences and ethical dilemmas it produces for refugee policy The contributors to this collection draw upon law social science and philosophy to bring a more robust and objective perspective on Canada's historical experience with sponsorship into wider conversations about the refugee crisis and resettlement Together they present recent cases that exemplify how the model has been applied and how it functions while also analyzing the challenges that emerge in host sponsor relations This volume further examines how sponsorship has been implemented differently in countries such as the United States and Australia The first dedicated study of refugee sponsorship policy Strangers to Neighbours assembles leading scholars from a range of disciplines to consider whether Canada's system is indeed a sustainable model for the world

Tourism and War Richard Butler, Wantanee Suntikul, 2013-05-07 This is the first volume to fully explore the complex relationship between war and tourism by considering its full range of dynamics including political psychological economic and ideological factors at different levels in different political and geographical locations Issues of peace and tourism are dealt with insofar as they pertain to the effects of war on tourism that emerge after the cessation of hostilities The book therefore reveals how not only location but also political strategies accidents of history transportation linkages and economic expediency all have played their role in the development and continuation of tourism before during and after wartime It further shows how the effects of war are seldom if ever simply a negation or reversal of the effects of peace on tourism The volume draws on a range of examples from medieval times to the present to reveal the multi faceted development of tourism amidst and because of conflict in a wide variety of locations including the Pacific Europe the Middle East North America Africa and South East Asia showing the diverse ways in which tourism and war interacts In doing so it explores how some locations have been developed as tourist attractions primarily because of war and conflict e g as resting and training places for troops and others flourished because of the threat of danger from conflicts to more traditional tourist locations This thought provoking volume contributes to the understanding of the interrelationships between war peace and tourism in many
