Designing Organizational Systems Richard Baskerville, Marco De Marco, Paolo Spagnoletti, 2012-10-02. This book is dedicated to the memory of Professor Alessandro Sandro D'Atri, who passed away in April 2011. Professor D'Atri started his career as a brilliant scholar interested in theoretical computer science, databases, and more generally information processing systems. He journeyed far in various applications such as human-computer interaction, human factors, ultimately arriving at business information systems and business organisation after more than 20 years of research based on problem solving. Professor D'Atri pursued the development of an interdisciplinary culture in which social sciences, systems design, and human sciences are mutually integrated. Rather than retrospection, this book is aimed to advance in these directions and to stimulate a debate about the potential of design research in the field of information systems and organisation studies with an interdisciplinary approach. Each chapter has been selected by the Editorial Board following a double-blind peer-review process. The general criteria of privileging the variety of topics and the design science orientation and/or empirical works in which a design research approach is adopted to solve various field problems in the management area. In addition, several chapters contribute to the meta-discourse on design science research. COOP 2016: Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on the Design of Cooperative Systems, 23-27 May 2016, Trento, Italy Antonella De Angeli, Liam Bannon, Patrizia Marti, Silvia Bordin, 2016-09-07.
